U. High Sends Greetings to Its Service Men All Over the World

We, the students of University High School, are proud of our alumni now in the service of our country. Many of our friends and former classmates have fallen in the line of duty, but we shall never forget them. The service flag hanging in the library is only the symbol. Behind that symbol lies the faith, the trust in those men and women who have lived and died for the flag of the United States of America. We who are now in University High School give ourselves to the establishing of a world worthy of your sacrifice.

The Clarion

1945

This Year's Clarion

There have been four distinct periods in the history of University High School: the classical high school 1860-1895; an unorganized high school 1896-1908; the scientific high school 1909-1935; the present high school 1935-1945. Because the first high school was in existence during the period known as the "gay nineties," the Clarion staff decided that the purpose of the 1945 yearbook should be to present a contrast between those early years and the present day. Thanks go to Carol Karr for her ingenuity in suggesting this idea.

Read these pages and look at these pictures in order to see our high school of today. Note the contrasting cartoons on the division pages and the list of changes found in the last section of the book to learn something of the early days; then appreciate all the advantages, both socially and educationally, that our high school now offers us.

Turn these pages. They're for you, about you, and by you.

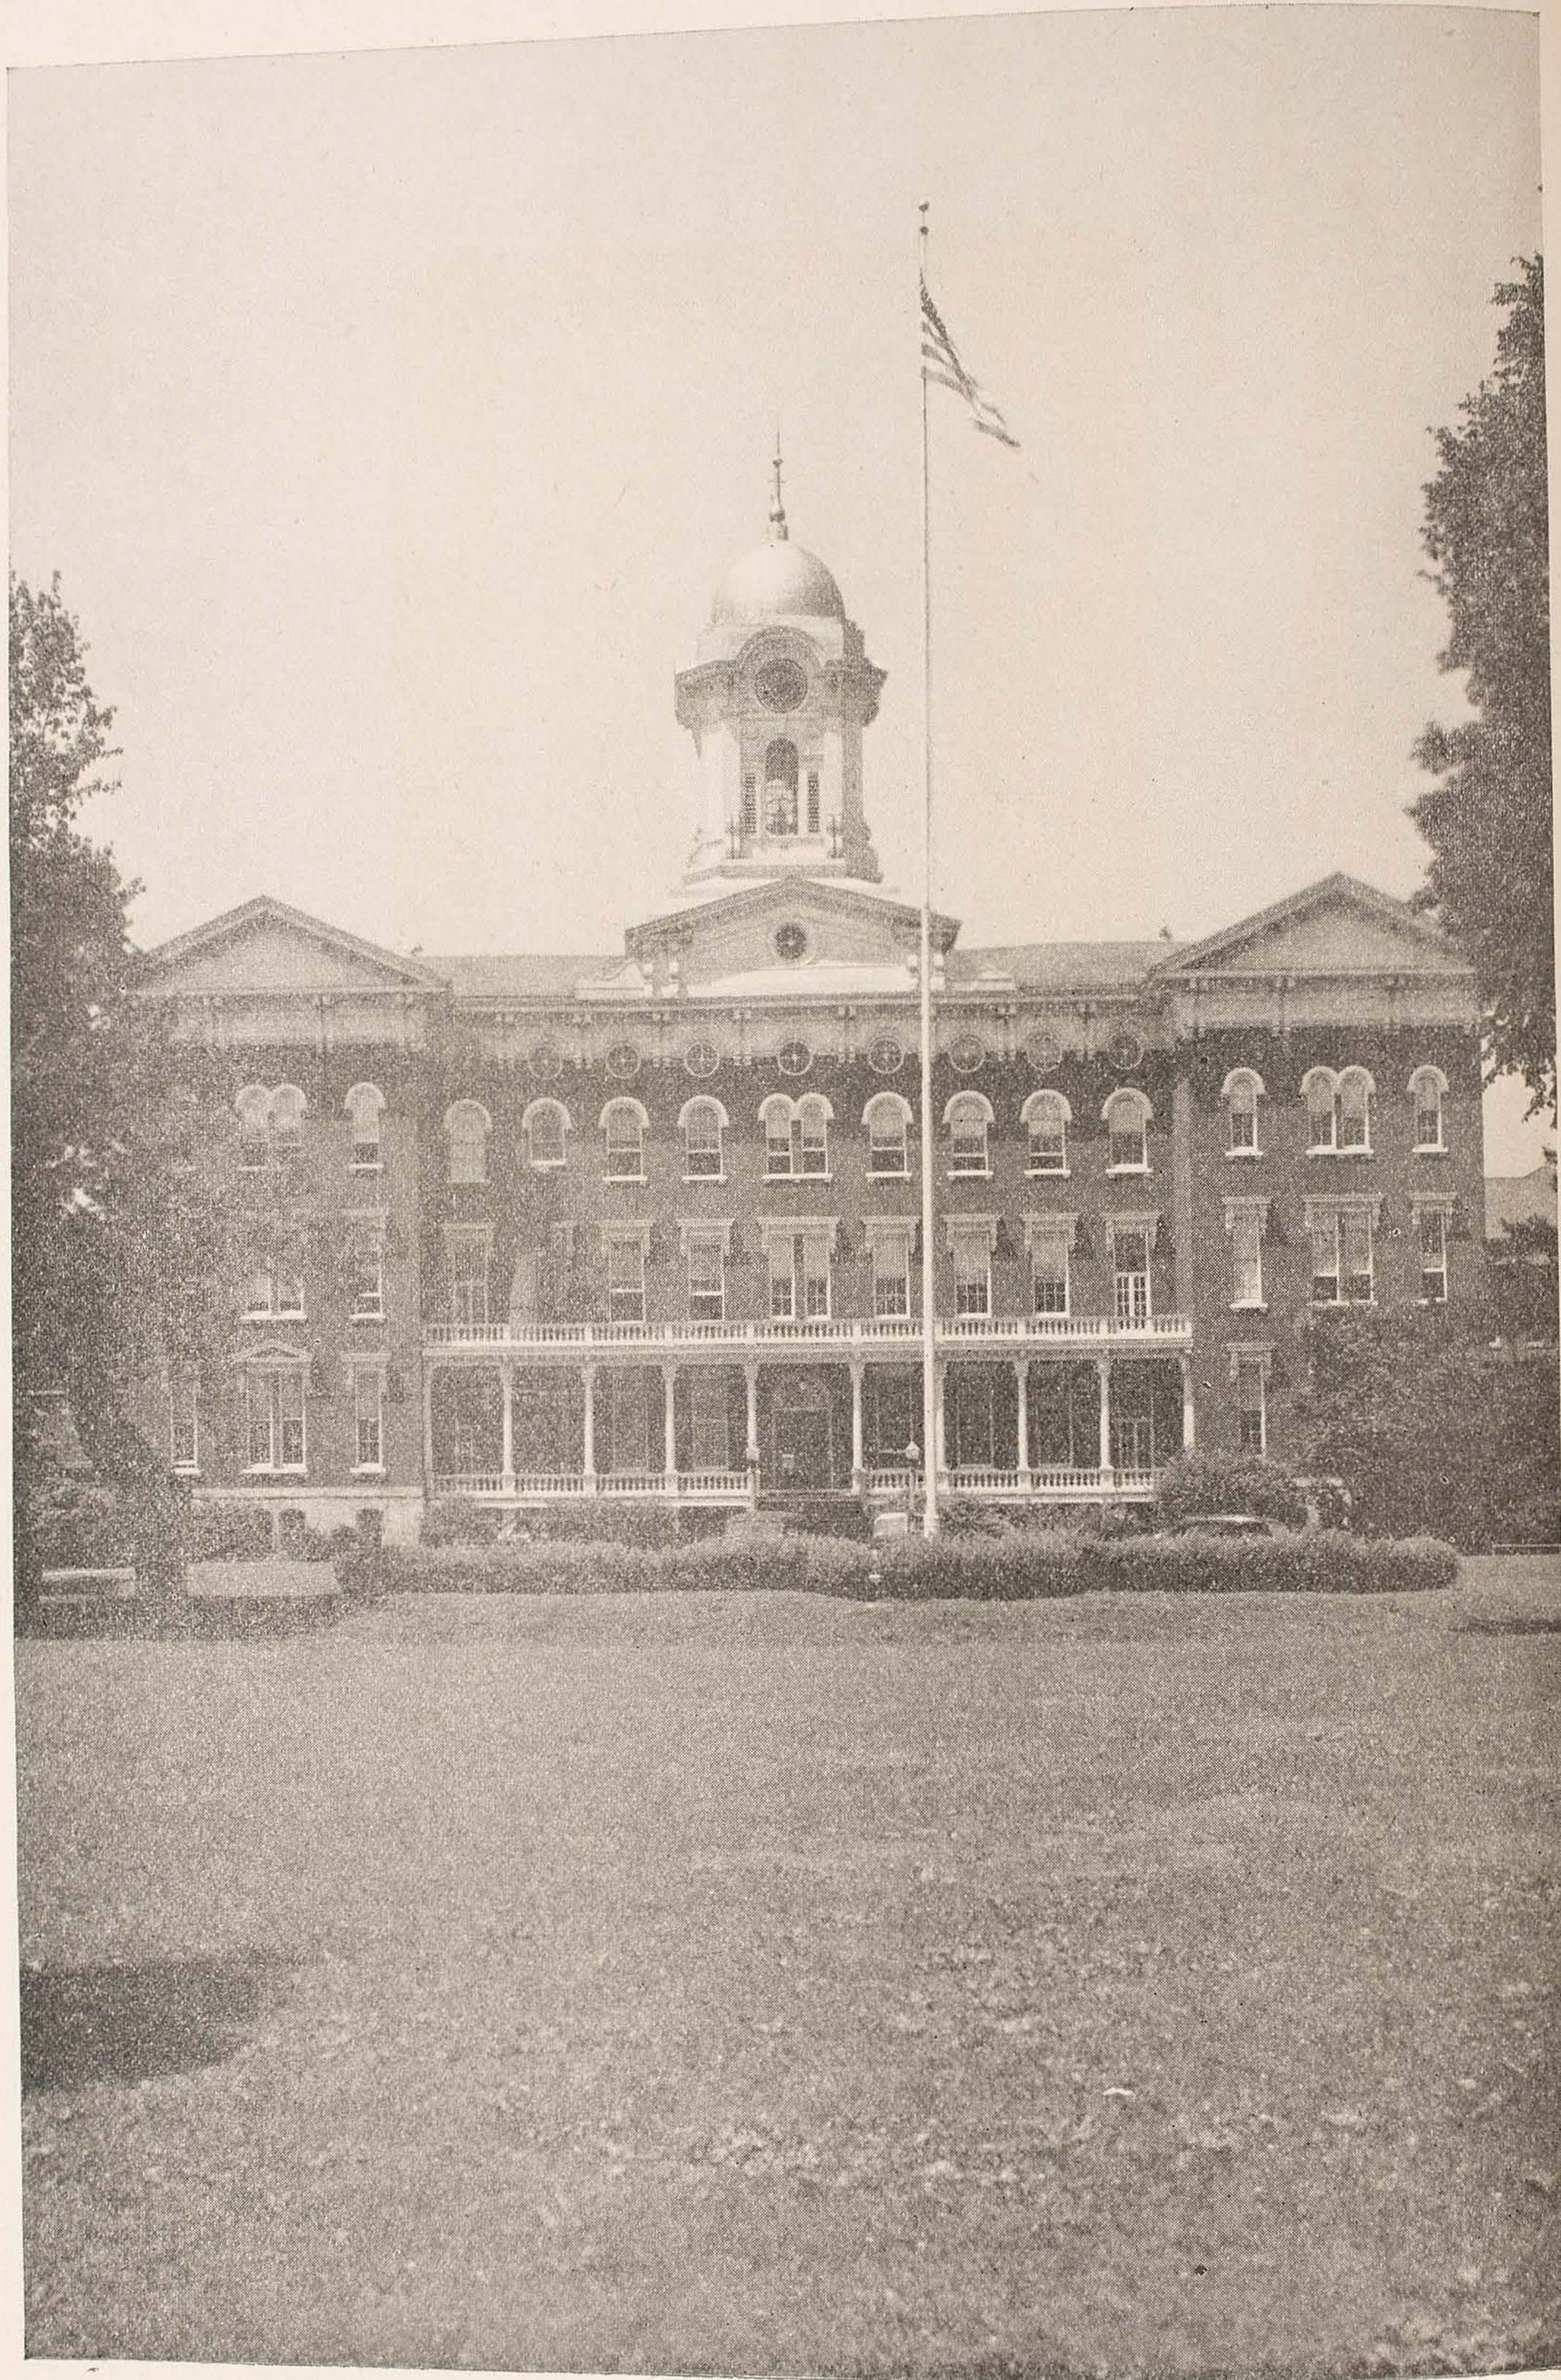

We dedicate this yearbook to Miss Lela Winegarner, whose integrity and loyalty have guided us through our four years at University High School. We appreciate her sincere interest in us and her untiring efforts to make our class activities successful.

MISS STEPHENS

To Miss Ethel Gertrude Stephens, who is leaving us after having given us many years of faithful service, we, the students of University High School, give our sincerest wishes for much happiness and pleasure in the future. Her many contributions to the welfare of this high school will not be forgotten.

During the absence of Miss Winegarner last year (1943) Miss Stubblefield sponsored the class of '45. The class appreciated Miss Stubblefield's helpfulness and willingness to take over that responsibility and wants her to have special recognition in this, their 1945 Clarion.

Office Staff

"May I see Dr. Waggoner? I want to plan for the fall semester."

"He's busy now. Won't you sit down and wait?"

Such a dialogue was frequently heard in room T-107 (the high school office) during the summer months as many of us returned to make out our programs for the year.

Then September came and most of us, at some time or another, ran into the office to get the master key for our stubborn locks from the cheerful Mrs. Wunderlich. Soon came the happy day when we were leaning impatiently over the ledge shouting for our activity tickets.

Later on, we hastened in there to recover (if we were lucky) something we lost or else to get an absence slip; and it was either Mrs. Wunderlich or Miss Norma Jean Davis who came to our aid. On the year rolled, with those harried people answering questions from "Where is my little brother this hour?" to "Did James Hamm go to U High in 1917?"

As we all know, there was a change in the personnel of the office staff after the Christmas holidays when Dr. Houston succeeded Dr. Waggoner as principal. We were sorry to have Dr. Waggoner leave but were happy that Dr. Houston was the one chosen for the position.

After eight years of faithful and understanding service, Dr. Waggoner left University High School to accept a position as head of the Placement Bureau at the Teachers' College in New Britain, Connecticut. His loyalty and kindness to the students as well as his sincere interest in University High School endeared him to everyone. Not only will his absence be profoundly felt but his presence will not be easily forgotten.

DR. WAGGONER

DR. HOUSTON

Dr. Victor M. Houston, former head of the Department of Education and Psychology at I.S.N.U., was appointed principal of University High School after Dr. Waggoner's resignation. He is a profound thinker and one who has keen insight into student problems. Dr. Houston is always courteous and pleasant in his dealings with the students and faculty of U High, and he is never too busy to talk with and assist them in solving their problems.

Senior Class Letter

Hi ya Gang,

Well, here we are-Seniors! Can you believe it? Way back in 1941 when we entered the halls of U. High, graduation day was a longed-for but a seemingly unattainable goal, wasn't it? We're very lucky; it seems that our generation has taken things too much for granted. Look at the buildings at good old U. H. S. Our grandparents would be more at home in the log cabin school house than in our surroundings of pink and green rooms. Hmmm-and that scrumptious library which opened in our sophomore year! Do you think Uncle John could have got his report on George Rodgers Clark half so well and speedily without those good reference books and Miss Stubblefield?

Nineteen forty-one was indeed an important year for us, but little did we realize in September that it would be a year never to be forgotten by the people of our United States—the year when our country entered World War II. Although there were all kinds of paper drives, collection of rubber, war bond drives, etc., it didn't quite strike home until we saw our "Joe's" march off to war, leaving school before graduation in order to fight for our country. Well, all those boys are still members of our class, and we surely hope that when they read about our school activities, they will know that we count them as seniors too.

Do you suppose that we were "little" and "green" when we were freshies? (Pardon us for the crack, dear freshmen; we're casting no reflections upon you, and we'll later give you the opportunity to say what you please about us!). I can remember that a few of us kids did get lost during the first days of school, and, oh me, how hard it was to get down to the habitual grind of studying! I think we "caught on" fairly quickly though, don't you? Miss Winegarner, our advisor, helped us to get started, and in the spring of that first year we elected our officers—Let's see, Mary Lou was our prexy, wasn't she? Then there were Gene Van Dyke, Sally Stretch, and Kenny Keighin, as vice-prexy, secretary and treasurer respectively. Marilyn Mette and Bill Benjamin were chosen as members of the Student Council. It seems to me that we were represented in most of the school's major activities during our freshmen year. Those freshie-sophomore football and basketball games thrilled us because there were

Junior Class

"Oh! Isn't that collegiate?" was heard echoing through the corridors of U. High.

Speaking, of course, was a member of the junior class, the "most collegiate" class in the school. The president this year was Eldred Popejoy; Charlotte Miller and Everette Roeder were vice-president and secretary-treasurer respectively. The Student Council representatives were John Harvey and Carlton Gamer.

The junior class play "Girl Shy" was given in Capen auditorium on Friday, November 17; leading parts being taken by Merle Murray, Pat Hollowell, and Everette Roeder. "Girl Shy" was acclaimed as one of the most successful junior plays in several years.

The junior class was represented in all of the major activities of the school. Don Sherrard, distinguished himself as a member of the varsity basketball team; he was always "right there" when needed and his field baskets added many joints to the squad's total score for this year. Other juniors in athletics were Dave Lewis, Bob Hougham, John Harvey, Bill Ewing, Paul Miller, Eldred Popejoy, John Teter, Allan Bruno, Ted Carihfield, Floyd Bonds, Jim Johnston, Harry Ziegler. Carlton Gamer was pianist for the mixed chorus, of which many juniors were members.

At each of the games and at the all-school parties, the juniors were ever present at their posts, selling candy and cokes.

Proceeds from the class play, as well as those from the candy and coke sales, went toward the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, which was held on May 18.

Without the help of their sponsor, Miss Ruth Stroud, the class would have had much difficulty in "getting over the bumps" of their third year at University High School.

the future members of our varsity team. (Not to be prejudiced, but that team is about the best.) During our first year G. A. A. was a new organization and many of us became members.

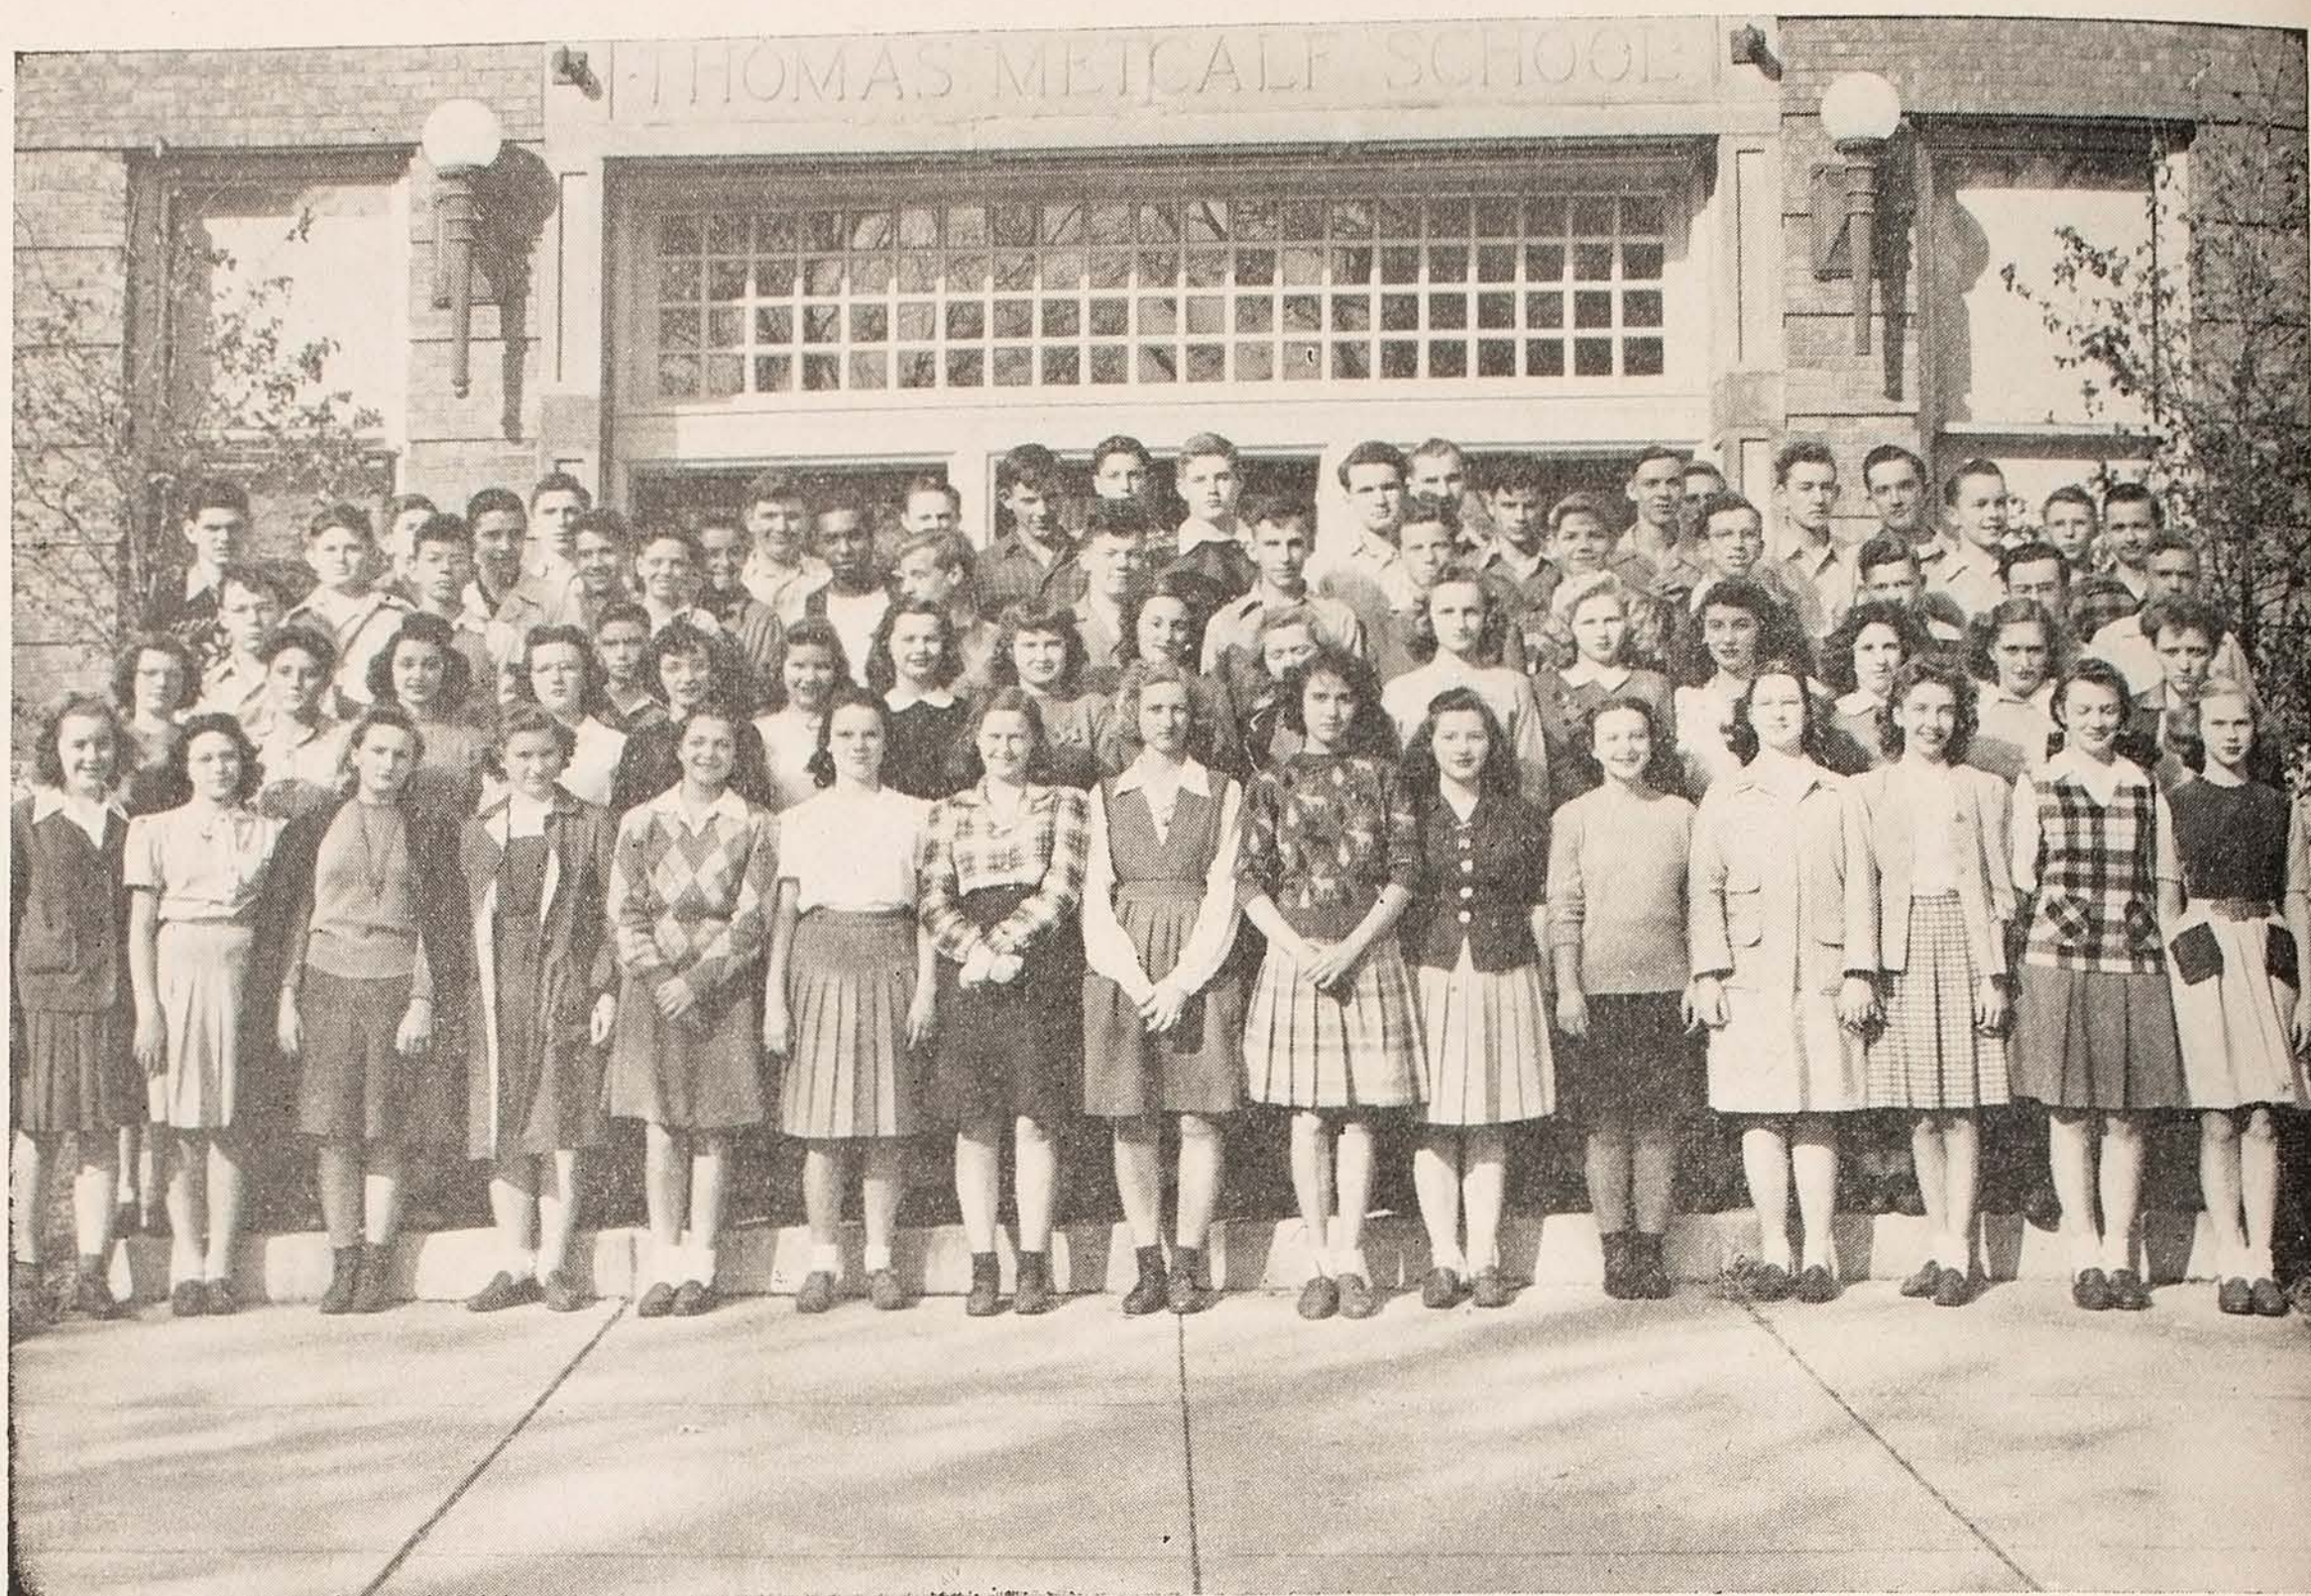

You know, we felt pretty smart when we were sophomores because we had the largest class in school (and some say, the noisiest, but well, we didn't have to believe that). Our officers that year were Bob Haage and Joan Rhinehart, presidents, Gene Van Dyke, vice-president, Betty Cross, secretary, and Sally Stretch, treasurer. Mary Lou and Joyce were on Student Council. As I remember it, we were really "on the ball" that year. Bobby Johnston, and Jerry Barker made the varsity basketball squad; Joan Rhinehart and Joe Maurer were active in the music department; Sally, Mary Lou, Barb, Johnny Malmberg and Marilyn Mette worked on the Clarion staff, and all of us were members of various school clubs (a definite asset, what say?)

Our Junior year brought us into the "lime light" for 'twas there that we showed our talent at acting. Remember "In a House Like This", Rod? Yes, indeed! Who could imagine Betty Cross as a cranky old grannie!—and Mary Lou and Norman as Mom and Pop—Hmm—weren't Burtie and Joyce a cute couple? Then there were Margy, the maid; Joan, the sophisticated lady; Gene Murray and Barb Kinder as the lovers; Gene Kauth as a business man, and Rog Freedlund as the older son of the family.

Hey! Those picket fences! I keep seeing them in my dreams. How about that chocolate milk shake in the piano, Carol? And Miss Winegarner, such a tireless worker at the Junior-Senior Prom! At the close of our junior year May Lou was elected student council prexy for that all important year '44-'45. She received both our congratulations and our sympathy, but we all knew she'd be the A no. 1 leader that she had always been in the past.

What have we done this year, kids? Just about everything and more, I guess. Our athletes, Bobby Johnston, Jerry Barker, Johnny Wroan, Earl Fry, will all be missed next year, I know. We wonder how school will continue without our musicians, actors, actresses, debators, journalists, scientists, etc., but I suppose it won't be long until we're part of the dim past. You may forget us, but we won't forget you; nor will we forget our happy and eventful days at old U. High. Bye now, chicks and laws! Be seein' ya! Keep things buzzin'.

Sophomore Class

The "silly sophs" did enough work (and of course, play, too) to "floor most other people.

They were on radio programs, went out for sports, had representatives on the Junior Red Cross, did the ushering at "Girl-Shy," baccalaureate, and commencement, were monitors (and in some cases head ones, too), belonged to all the clubs, took part in musical activities, and sponsored an all-school spring dance.

Outstanding persons in the class are Ned Jefferson, president of the class and of science club, monitor of third hour study hall; Joan Kinneman, vice-president of the class, secretary of the student council, and member of the apportionment board; Barbara Thielen, secretary-treasurer of the class; Bill Meete, member of the Junior Red Cross and head monitor of the huge fourth hour study hall; Pauline West, member of the student council and head monitor of the first hour study hall; David Doud, member of the student council; Jerry Martens, active in sports; Bonnie Sutter, singer, extraordinary; and Bob Landis, the one who kicked so many extra points in football.

The sophomore class expects to do "big things" during the remaining two years at University High School.

Freshman Class

Immediately after three o'clock on Monday, the eighth day of January, 1945, a stream of freshman poured out of buildings all over University High's campus and headed for Cook Hall.

Their class sponsor, Miss Webb, had called a meeting of the ninety-seven freshmen to elect officers for the coming year.

Miss Webb took charge of the meeting until Martha Schaab was elected president. Then under Martha's direction the following were elected to the other offices: Norma Hanell, vice-president; Nancy Fearhiley, secretary; Jim Laible, treasurer.

Early in the year, Miss Webb and Dr. Waggoner appointed Joan Mercier, Jack Donahue, and Bill Rolley to the Student Council, Barbara Browne to the apportionment board and Bill Rolley to the assembly committee.

Other freshmen who took positions are: Franklin Abbott, vice-president of the Latin Club; Nancy Fearhiley, treasurer of Thalian; and Martha Schaab, our cheerleader.

The freshman class got off to a flying start—thanks to Miss Webb—and we're sure their next three years will be very successful.

Clarionette

"Hey, Burt, where's that write-up of the game?" queries Arlene.

"Jo, that joke is too corny for 'Out of This World,' " screams Jay.

"Who threw away that galley?" worries LaVerne, searching the wastebasket.

"Try to see Mr. Honn, Eileen," orders Miss Williams.

Agnes industriously types a story, while Marilyn is out waiting for news to break.

Donna, Mary Ellen, Dorothy, and Chuck are discussing news.

This will give an idea of the activity in the journalism room just before each issue of the paper was published.

Besides these members, Corinne Carson, Margaret Liddle, and Barbara Kinder were on the staff the first semester, and Gene Kauth, Dean Scott, and Elaine Carlock, the second.

The staff, besides putting out the Clarionette every three weeks, gained from class-work additional information pertaining to journalism.

The fact that the newsroom was a general clearing house for all gossip and news gave the staff a feeling of superiority over the average student who couldn't find out what the news was until the paper came out.

Student Council

The first event of the year sponsored by the Student Council was the homecoming game and dance. Many alumni and service men came back to make the homecoming a great success.

In October an all school party was given. Besides the dancing, an unusual program and unique decorations made the party one to be remembered.

At the close of school, for Christmas vacation, a Christmas dance was planned. It served two purposes: a farewell party for Dr. Waggoner and a get-together dance to help celebrate Christmas. Many service men were present on this occasion too.

Each year a district student council convention is held. This year the meeting was at Champaign. Representatives from our council were Mary Lou Stover, Carol Karr, and Sally Stretch.

The three other most important activities of our governing body for the year '44-'45 were reorganizing of the study hall monitorial system, purchasing recreational facilities for dances and parties, and bringing the service flag up-to-date.

With Mary Lou Stover, president; Sally Stretch, vice-president; Marilyn Mette, secretary; and Joan Kinneman, treasurer, everything went off like clock work. Hearty congratulations should be given to the Student Council and to Dr. Lueck, the sponsor, for such fine work.

Mixed Chorus

"Do, do, mi, so, si, ti — Oh! Up one half step, please." This was the tuning up routine heard at every rehearsal of the University High School Mixed Chorus.

Under the direction of Dr. H. W. Peithman, the chorus presented several excellent programs during the year. On Sunday, January 14, a musical program was presented. During the first part of the program, the chorus sang a group of songs; Audrey Brust and Betty Mallory were the vocal soloists. Carlton Gamer then played an original composition on the piano. The outstanding feature of the afternoon was the presentation by the chorus of the cantata, "The Great Assembly Line." This was one of the most outstanding performances of the year. Another cantata, presented later in the year, also received well-deserved praise.

The chorus sang for the school assembly, baccalaureate, and the annual May festival.

Officers for this year were Audrey Brust, president; Barbara Dobbs, vice-president; and Betty Cross, secretary-treasurer.

Front Row: F. Beck, M. Warmbir, M. Little, P. Reed, E. Roeder, Dr. Peithman, J. Zaleski, B. Reining, K. Sizemore, D. Graybeal.

U. H. Band

One, two, three, four — play. Those passing the rehearsal room in Cook Hall any fourth hour perhaps heard these familiar words. Then, if, by chance, they glanced into the room, they saw Mr. Peithman waving a baton, trying to get the band of University High School to keep in time.

The band played at our football and basketball games, thus giving more pep to the cheering section and building up the morale of the players. It was indeed thrilling to all of us when we heard the band start our school song. Some other band numbers which we especially liked to hear were On the Mall, Argentina, and The Desert Song.

Members of our band in conjunction with band members from Normal Community and Bloomington High played at the McLean County Teachers' Meeting in March. The band also presented an assembly program.

The officers for this busy organization were Marilyn Warmbir, president; Don Sherrard, vice-president; and Eldred Popejoy, secretary-treasurer.

First Row: J. Holmes, J. Rhinehart, E. Steele, B. Browne, K. McDonald, C. Parker, M. Huffington, B. Corn, M. Jones.

U. H. Orchestra

This year's University High School Orchestra was under the direction of Dr. Harlan Peithman. The organization had an enrollment of thirty-four members.

The officers were Joan Rhinehart, president; Sally Stretch, vice-president; Fred Beck, secretary; and Marilyn Warmbir, treasurer.

The orchestra presented two outstanding programs, one at the senior play and the other at an assembly program. Some of the pieces which they played were, "Andante Theme" from Fifth Symphony, "Merry Widow Waltz," "Andantino with a Modern Sketch," and "Festival Overture."

First Row: N. Fearheiley, A. Stanbery, S. Stretch, M. Mette, C. Karr, J. Mercier.

Second Row: D. Stone, W. Thorsen, B. Thielan, B. Dobbs, E. Carlock, B. Cross, E. Steele.

Third Row: R. Ellerbrock, M. Balke, Miss Stubblefield, B. Sutter, C. Parker, B. Browne, K. Davis, M. Stover.

Thalian

The club started in fine shape this year. A cider and doughnut party was held in U High's Home Ec. Room for freshmen and new members. The party was a success, and everybody was contented with the food, the debate, and the fellowship of others.

During the year an all school party was sponsored by the society. A St. Patrick's Day theme was carried out and was greeted with enthusiasm by the entire school.

The annual Rostrum-Thalian Debate was held at the very end of the year. Although both clubs worked very hard, the results were really worthwhile.

The Thalian banquet was held on April 21, at the Hotel Rogers. Those attending enjoyed a good dinner and fine speeches by Mr. Barger and members of the club. The annual award was presented to Mary Lou Stover for outstanding work in the club during her four years of high school.

The year was brought to a successful close by a party given at the home of Miss Stubblefield, sponsor of Thalian. Let's hope next year will be bigger and better.

Red Cross

On the second Wednesday of every month, the Junior Red Cross Council meets with its sponsor, Miss Williams, and the representatives of the other three high schools.

The members from our school are as follows: Barbara Kauth, Ruth Ann Allott, Bill Mette, Dorothy Wilson, Gene Kauth, Frank Abbott, Glen Murray, Grover Baker, and Marjorie Brunson.

The Council has worked very successfully at sponsoring membership drives, giving an assembly program, collecting Christmas cards and other materials made by the art department for the soldiers, helping with the Senior Red Cross banquet, and helping with the canteen at the Alton station.

We are proud of our Junior Red Cross Council and hope they will keep up their good work.

Seated: G. Murray, F. Abbott, E. Roeder.
Standing: D. Wilson, B. Kauth, R. Allott, M. Brunson.

Honor Society

Did you happen to see some girls wearing gold pins last fall? Perhaps you wondered what these pins signified. They were emblems to show that the girls were members of the Walter Dill Scott Chapter of Secondary Schools. The Walter Dill Scott Chapter was granted its charter in 1934.

During the second semester of the junior year the upper five per cent of the class is voted on for eligibility into the society. Betty Cross, Marilyn Mette, Joan Rhinehart, and Mary Lou Stover were the four juniors chosen to carry the Honor Society into the senior year.

The new members this year were: Audrey Brust, Sally Stretch, Joyce Mauney, Barbara Kinder, Nancy Brown, Carol Karr, and Mary Ellen Dunn.

The officers elected were Betty Cross, president; Sally Stretch, vice president; Marilyn Mette, secretary; and Nancy Brown, treasurer.

Under the leadership of their sponsor, Dr. Ellwood, a successful year has just been completed. University High was host for the Normal Community and University High National Honor Society Banquet. The University High handbook which was started several years ago was finished this year.

Seated: A. Brust, J. Rhinehart, B. Cross, N. Brown, B. Kinder.
Standing: Dr. Ellwood, J. Mauney, M. Stover, C. Karr, S. Stretch, M. Mette.

Dramatics Club

As I was walking down the hall one day, I heard a scream. Thinking something exciting was happening, I hastened to the room from which the scream had come, only to find some members of the Dramatics Club practicing a play. The play looked interesting; so I stayed. Indeed it was really a "super" production. There was some good talent there. Perhaps some of these people might become famous actors and actresses some day.

Members of the club received valuable information concerning the production and selection of plays. They also had experience directing plays and participating in them.

The officials of the "Metro Goldyen Mayer" in University High were: Nancy Brown, president; Bebe Kay Lusher, vice-president; Marijean Hamilton, secretary. The sponsor was Mr. Barber.

Seated: M. Pearson, P. Lawrence, M. Hurst, M. Huffington, Y. Maxey.

Standing: Miss Stubblefield, M. Hamilton, P. Minch, J. Saylor, P. Hollowell, H. Bane, B. Saylor, C. Miller, G. Gottschalk, C. Geske, J. Fleming, B. Streenz.

Library Club

Every time one entered the high school library this year he noticed some new and interesting arrangement in the show case or something different on the bulletin board. This was the product of that hardworking group of seventeen who also made book reviews and worked at the loan desk—the Library Club.

This two year old club met once a month on Friday. The purposes of the club were to understand library practices, to gain an appreciation of good books, and to help keep the library interesting and attractive.

In addition to the actual library work, the members of the club had other activities, such as participating in one radio program, advertising Book Week in November, arranging a special display for Christmas and helping in the book drives. The annual social event was a picnic at the end of the year.

The members elected their officers this year as follows: president, Mary Hurst; vice president, Margaret Huffington; treasurer, Nona Sylvester; and secretary, Pat Lawrence. Miss Stubblefield sponsored the club.

Senior Class Play

History exams! An old story to all the seniors! But it was told in a new way in the seniors' play, "Almost Summer", by Christopher Sergel. The play, under the direction of G. B. Barber, was presented on March 23 in Capen Auditorium.

Paul (Duane Vanderwater) has to make a ninety-five on his history exam or he can't go on his summer vacation with the family. The fact that his girl Jane (Carol Karr) is spending her vacation at the same place is added incentive for him. Mr. and Mrs. Jones (Dean Scott and Nan Brown) have their troubles trying to keep the family's feet on the ground, especially since young Junior (Burt Mercier) has already met his one and only Lila (Marilyn Mette).

Other characters are Jane's brother (Rod Abbott) and Paul's sister Mary (Betty Mallory), who are very much in love; Principal Smudgely (Johnny Malmberg); and Anna, the maid (Betty Soucy).

Junior Class Play

The lights dimmed; the curtains parted; and University High students and friends settled back to enjoy "Girl Shy," one of the most humorous plays in recent years. The time was 8:15 on the evening of November 17, 1944, and the place was Capen Auditorium.

Merle Murray, as "girl shy" Tom Arsdale; Pat Hollowell, as Barbara Sanford; and Everette Roeder, as Oke Stimson, were the leading characters. Other members of the cast were Charlotte Miller, Joan Kupfer, Glen Murray, Corinne Carson, Marcella Pearson, Irv Tick, Yvonne Maxey, David Brazelton, and John Teter.

The story concerns Babs Sanford and her struggles to "catch" Tom Arsdale. Of course, many complications arise.

Mr. G. Barber, a newcomer to University High, was the splendid director. He was assisted by Miss Maxine Miller, Miss Patricia Weldon, and Peggy Minch. The make-up committee consisted of Gretchen Gottschalk, and Oleta Lanigan. Costumes were in charge of Charlotte Geske, Barbara Kauth, and Dorothy Ragland. On the property committee were Polly Flesher and Wanda Bundy.

Latin Club

The Latin Club, Societas Latina, under the direction of Miss Regina Connel had a very successful and interesting year. There were about twenty members, and they met the second Tuesday of each month in Room M-311 at 7:00 p.m.

The main purpose of the club was to increase the interests of its members in the Roman people and in Latin itself. This was certainly done through the very informative as well as entertaining programs that were planned by the students for each meeting.

One of the greatest accomplishments of the club was the presentation of a Latin comedy at one of the assemblies. The name of the play was "Time Marches Back", and it was written by a committee made up of Carlton Gamer, Don Gresham, Dale Knobloch, and Bill Mette. This play proved to the audience that Latin is not dry but lots of fun.

The officers were, Consul (president) Barbara Thielen, Pro-Consul (vice-president) Franklin Abbott, Scribe (secretary) Wilda Thorsen, and Quaestor (treasurer) Joan Fleming.

Front Row: M. Huffington, R. Mentzer, B. Thielan, W. Thorsen, J. Fleming, B. Smith.

Back Row: J. Jones, B. Corn, C. Jack, D. Campbell, D. Hannell, K. Danies, Dr. Connell.

Front Row: Miss Webb, Miss Winegarner, Miss Klauser.

Back row: P. Minch, B. Browne, J. Kinneman, S. Stretch, J. Mauney.

Apportionment Board

This year the Apportionment Board met on the eighteenth of October to prepare this year's budget for University High School.

The board's job is to apportion the money received from activity fees to the different classes and organizations of University High so that they are able to carry on their different projects.

This year the board disposed of the financial problems of the school in one meeting. A larger enrollment made it possible for each organization to be given more money per semester than previously.

The members of this board consisted of five students, representing the different classes and student council and five faculty members. They are as follows: Barbara Browne, freshman class representative; Joan Kinneman, sophomore class representative; Peggy Minch, the junior class representative; Joyce Mauney, the senior class representative, and Sally Stretch, student council member. The faculty members were, Miss Winegarner, chairman of the board, Dr. Sherman G. Waggoner, Mr. Rine, Miss Webb, Miss Klauser.

Science Club

Did you ever peek in on a Science Club meeting at University High? If you didn't, you missed something! All you girls who think bugs and snakes—yes, even mice—are something repulsive would, I'm sure, have seen how very interesting they are.

The nature lovers meet in S-106 on Wednesday evenings from six-thirty to seven-thirty. The main purpose of the club was to carry out biological projects such as experiments in bacteriology, plant and amphibian aquariums, and butterfly-moth collections.

One University High pupil was heard to say that if she were taking a scientific subject, she certainly would join the club. She had seen only one meeting; so doesn't this prove that the Science Club was an interesting one?

The officers of this interesting club were: Ned Jefferson, president; Jim Jones, vice-president; and Wilda Thorsen, secretary-treasurer. The sponsors were Dr. McAvoy and Dr. Young.

Front Row: Dr. Young, Dr. McAvoy, R. Mentzer, N. Jefferson.

Assembly Committee

A stirring talk by J. E. Fraley, a moving tale by Miss Smalley, an interesting presentation of political platforms, and a picturesque cross-campus movie were just some of the many interesting programs presented in assemblies this year.

Whether you liked these assemblies or not, we hope that it was the former) you can attribute it to the assembly program committee of David Rolley, freshman; David Doud, sophomore; Peggy Minch, senior; and Miss Lela Winegarner, advisor.

This committee planned the assembly programs and saw that they worked out well.

Seated: P. Minch, Miss Winegarner.
Standing: D. Doud, B. Rolley.

First Row: D. Campbell, Y. Maxey, C. Karr, R. Abbott, S. Stretch, Miss Klauser, C. Geske, M. Mette, J. Mauney.

Clarion

We feel that it is rather appropriate for the Clarion staff picture to appear at the end of the organization pictures since it is one of the last clubs to function during the year. It's gift to University High is the 1945 yearbook which is presented near the close of school.

With war time restrictions this year the task of putting out this book has been a difficult one. Many original plans concerning the theme, the gay-nineties, had to be changed because of the lack of paper, film, and printing materials; however, the staff and the sponsor, Miss Lucile Klauser, worked diligently and long making necessary adjustments. Your enjoyment of this book will be their reward. We hope that you like the book and can relive the happy experiences related in its pages.

Varsity Football

Ah! Autumn! Those wonderful days when we watched our U. High boys come prancing out on the field full of pep and vigor. The results of this pep were as follows:

There—Fairbury	34	U. High	13
There—Chenoa	6	U. High	20
Here—LeRoy	33	U. High	18
There—Normal	7	U. High	13
There—Bloomington	35	U. High	12
Here—Dwight	12	U. High	27
Here—Pontiac	28	U. High	7
Here—Morris	7	U. High	26
Here—Trinity	14	U. High	32

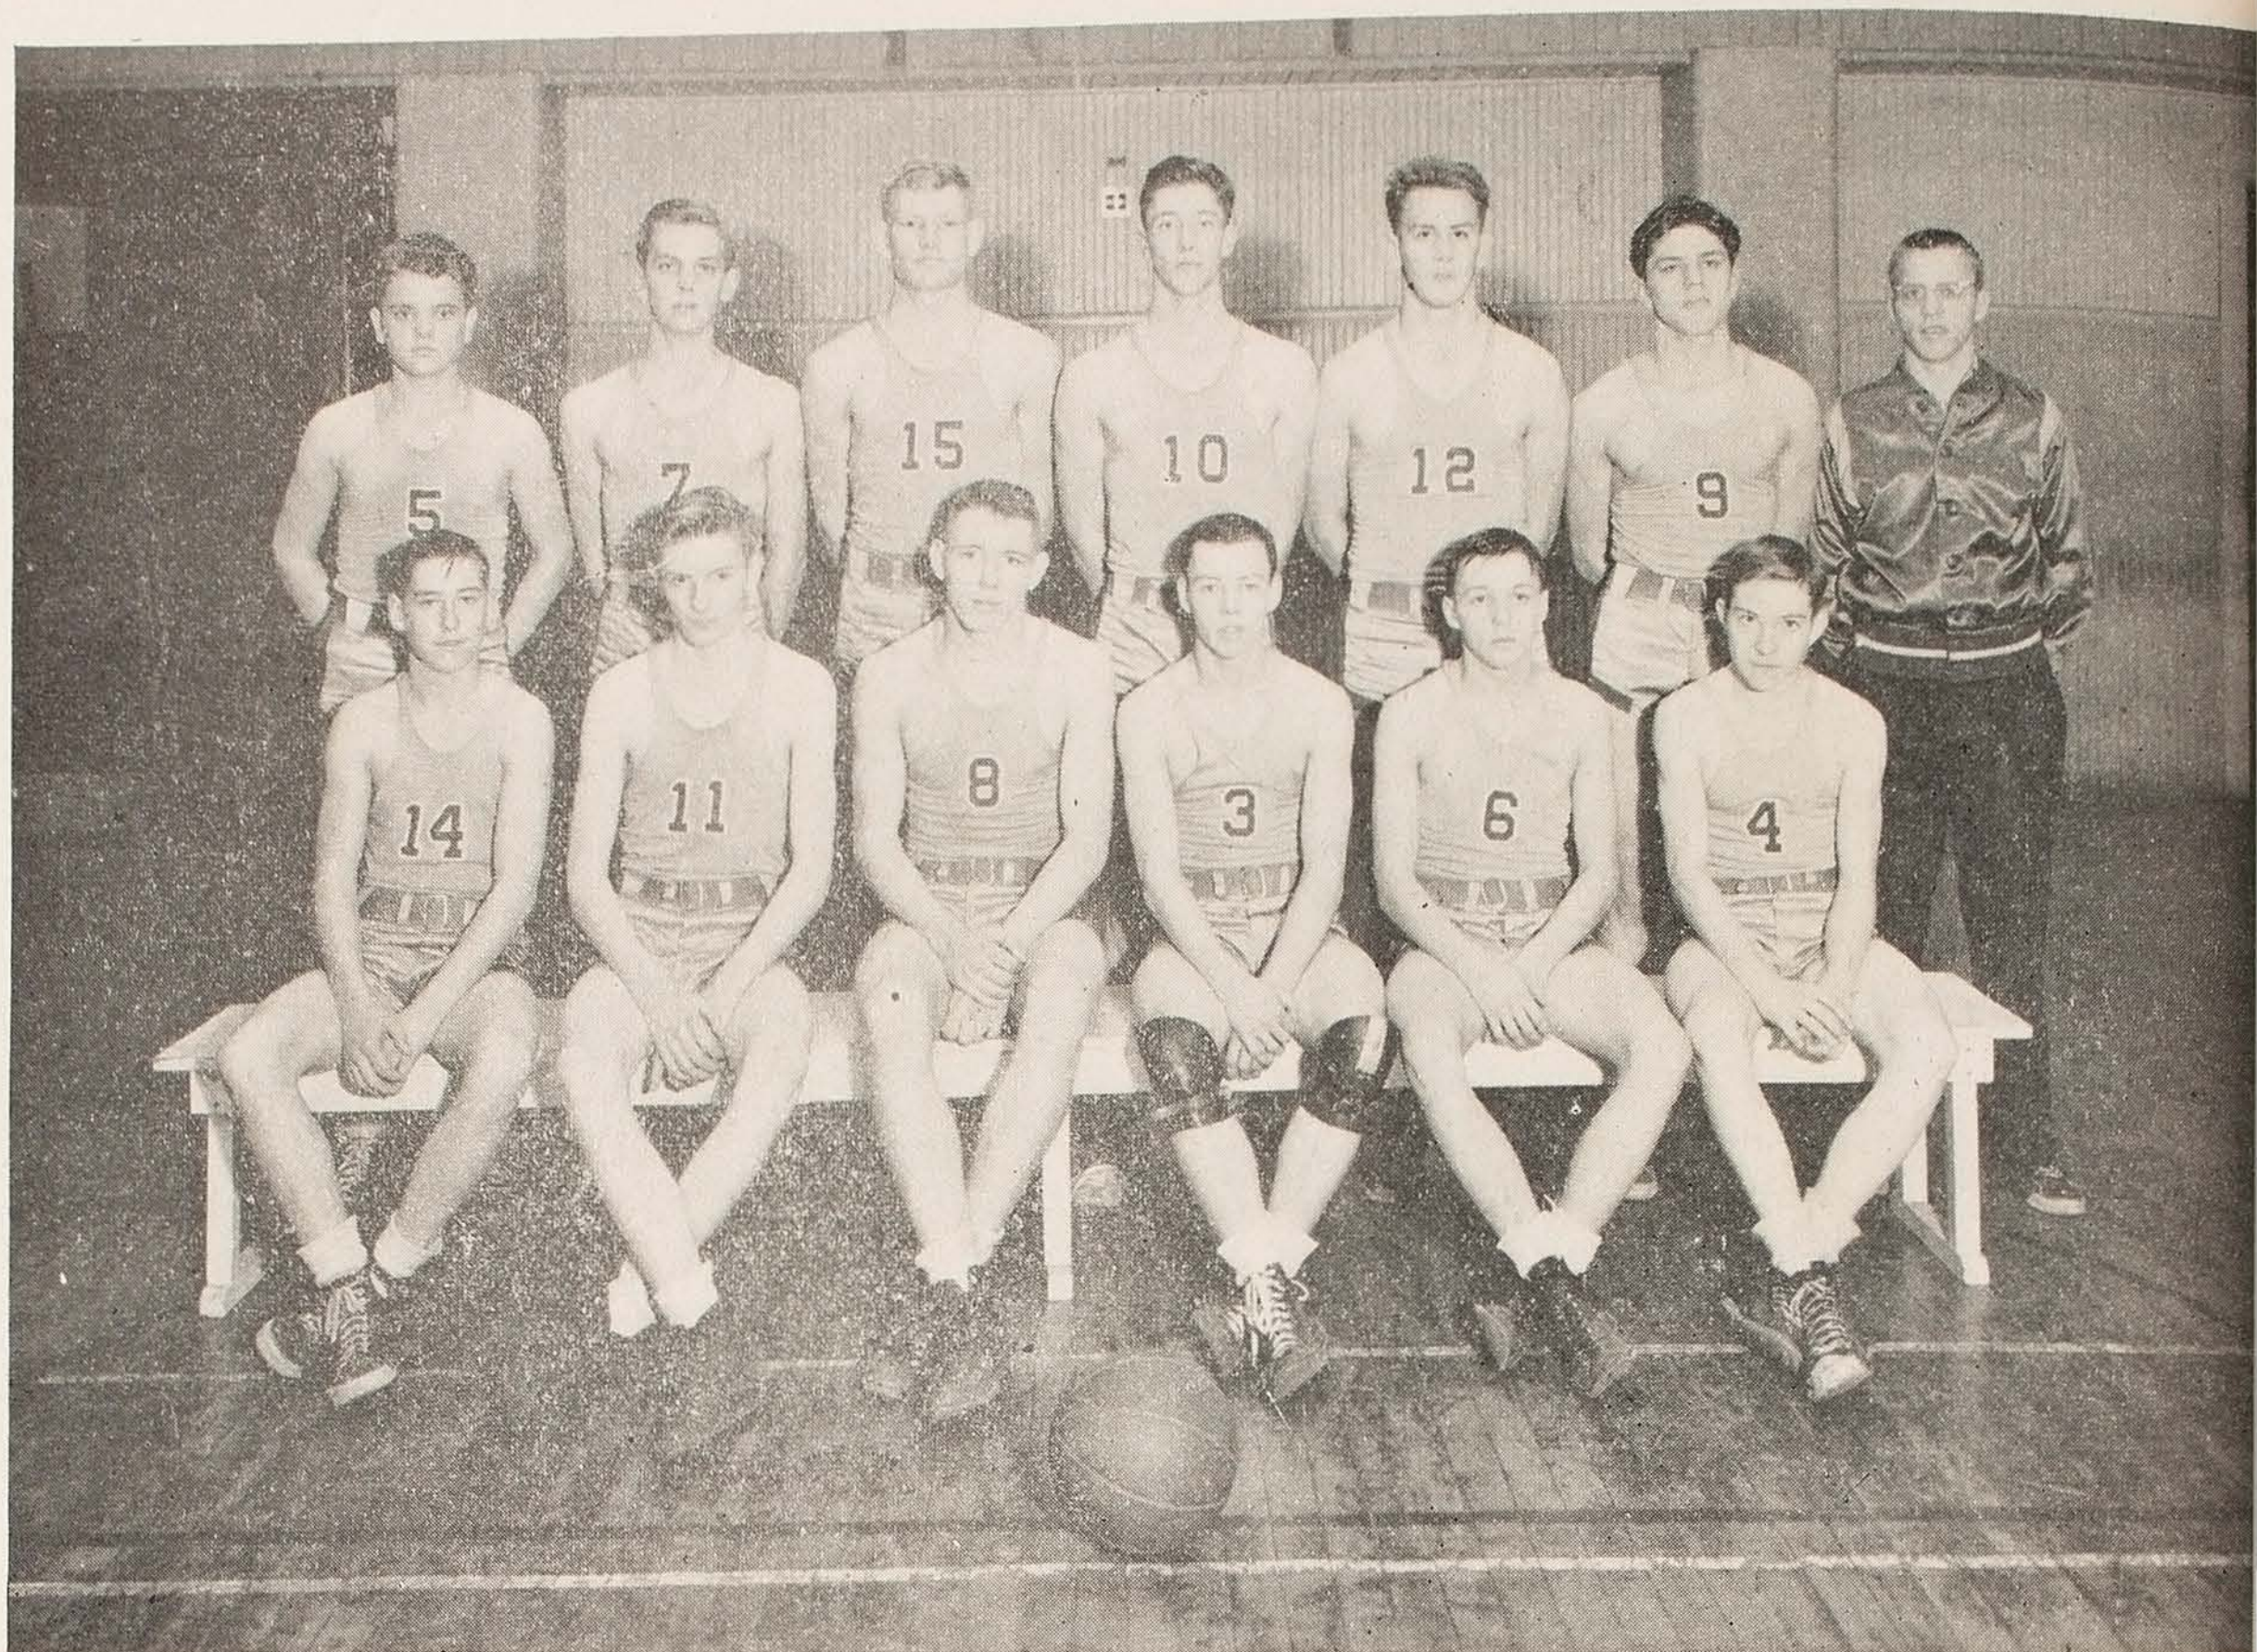

As a result of the above scores, we were third in the Corn Belt Conference and second in the Intercity race.

We made our debut on September 15th. Bobby Johnston, the U. High captain, proved his leadership many times during the gridiron season. He lead the Corn Belt in the scoring loop.

This year Bobby Johnston, Jerry Barker, Earl Fry, Johnny Wroan, and Art Biggs all put in their last performances, which were really great ones.

U. High finished the football season in a blaze-of-glory by defeating its old rival, Trinity, at the Homecoming game. Another specialty of this game was the presentation of the Queen and her attendants at the half. This year the cheering was really a credit to the school.

Varsity Basketball

Basketball reached a new high this year as University High School came out victorious in nineteen out of twenty-six games to make one of the outstanding records in central Illinois. Together with Fairbury the U. High basketball team were co-champions of the Corn Belt Conference for the 1944-45 season; they also shared the intercity title with B.H.S. and N.C.H.S.

After winning the regional tournament at Lexington, our boys entered the sectional at La Salle as favorites but lost to the fast-clicking Somonauk team 55-41.

Of the ten lettermen, three (Jerry Barker, Tom Galvin, and Johnny Wroan) will be lost by graduation. Don Sherrard, Dick Weidig, Bob Hougham, Clinton Short, Dewey Miller, and Jerry Martens will form the nucleus for next year's team.

Coach O'Connor and the team really deserve acclaim for this year's outstanding ball club.

1945 Regional Champions

An abundance of praise goes to Coach O'Connor and our varsity team for bringing U. High through to the top this year with a thrilling conclusion to the Lexington regional.

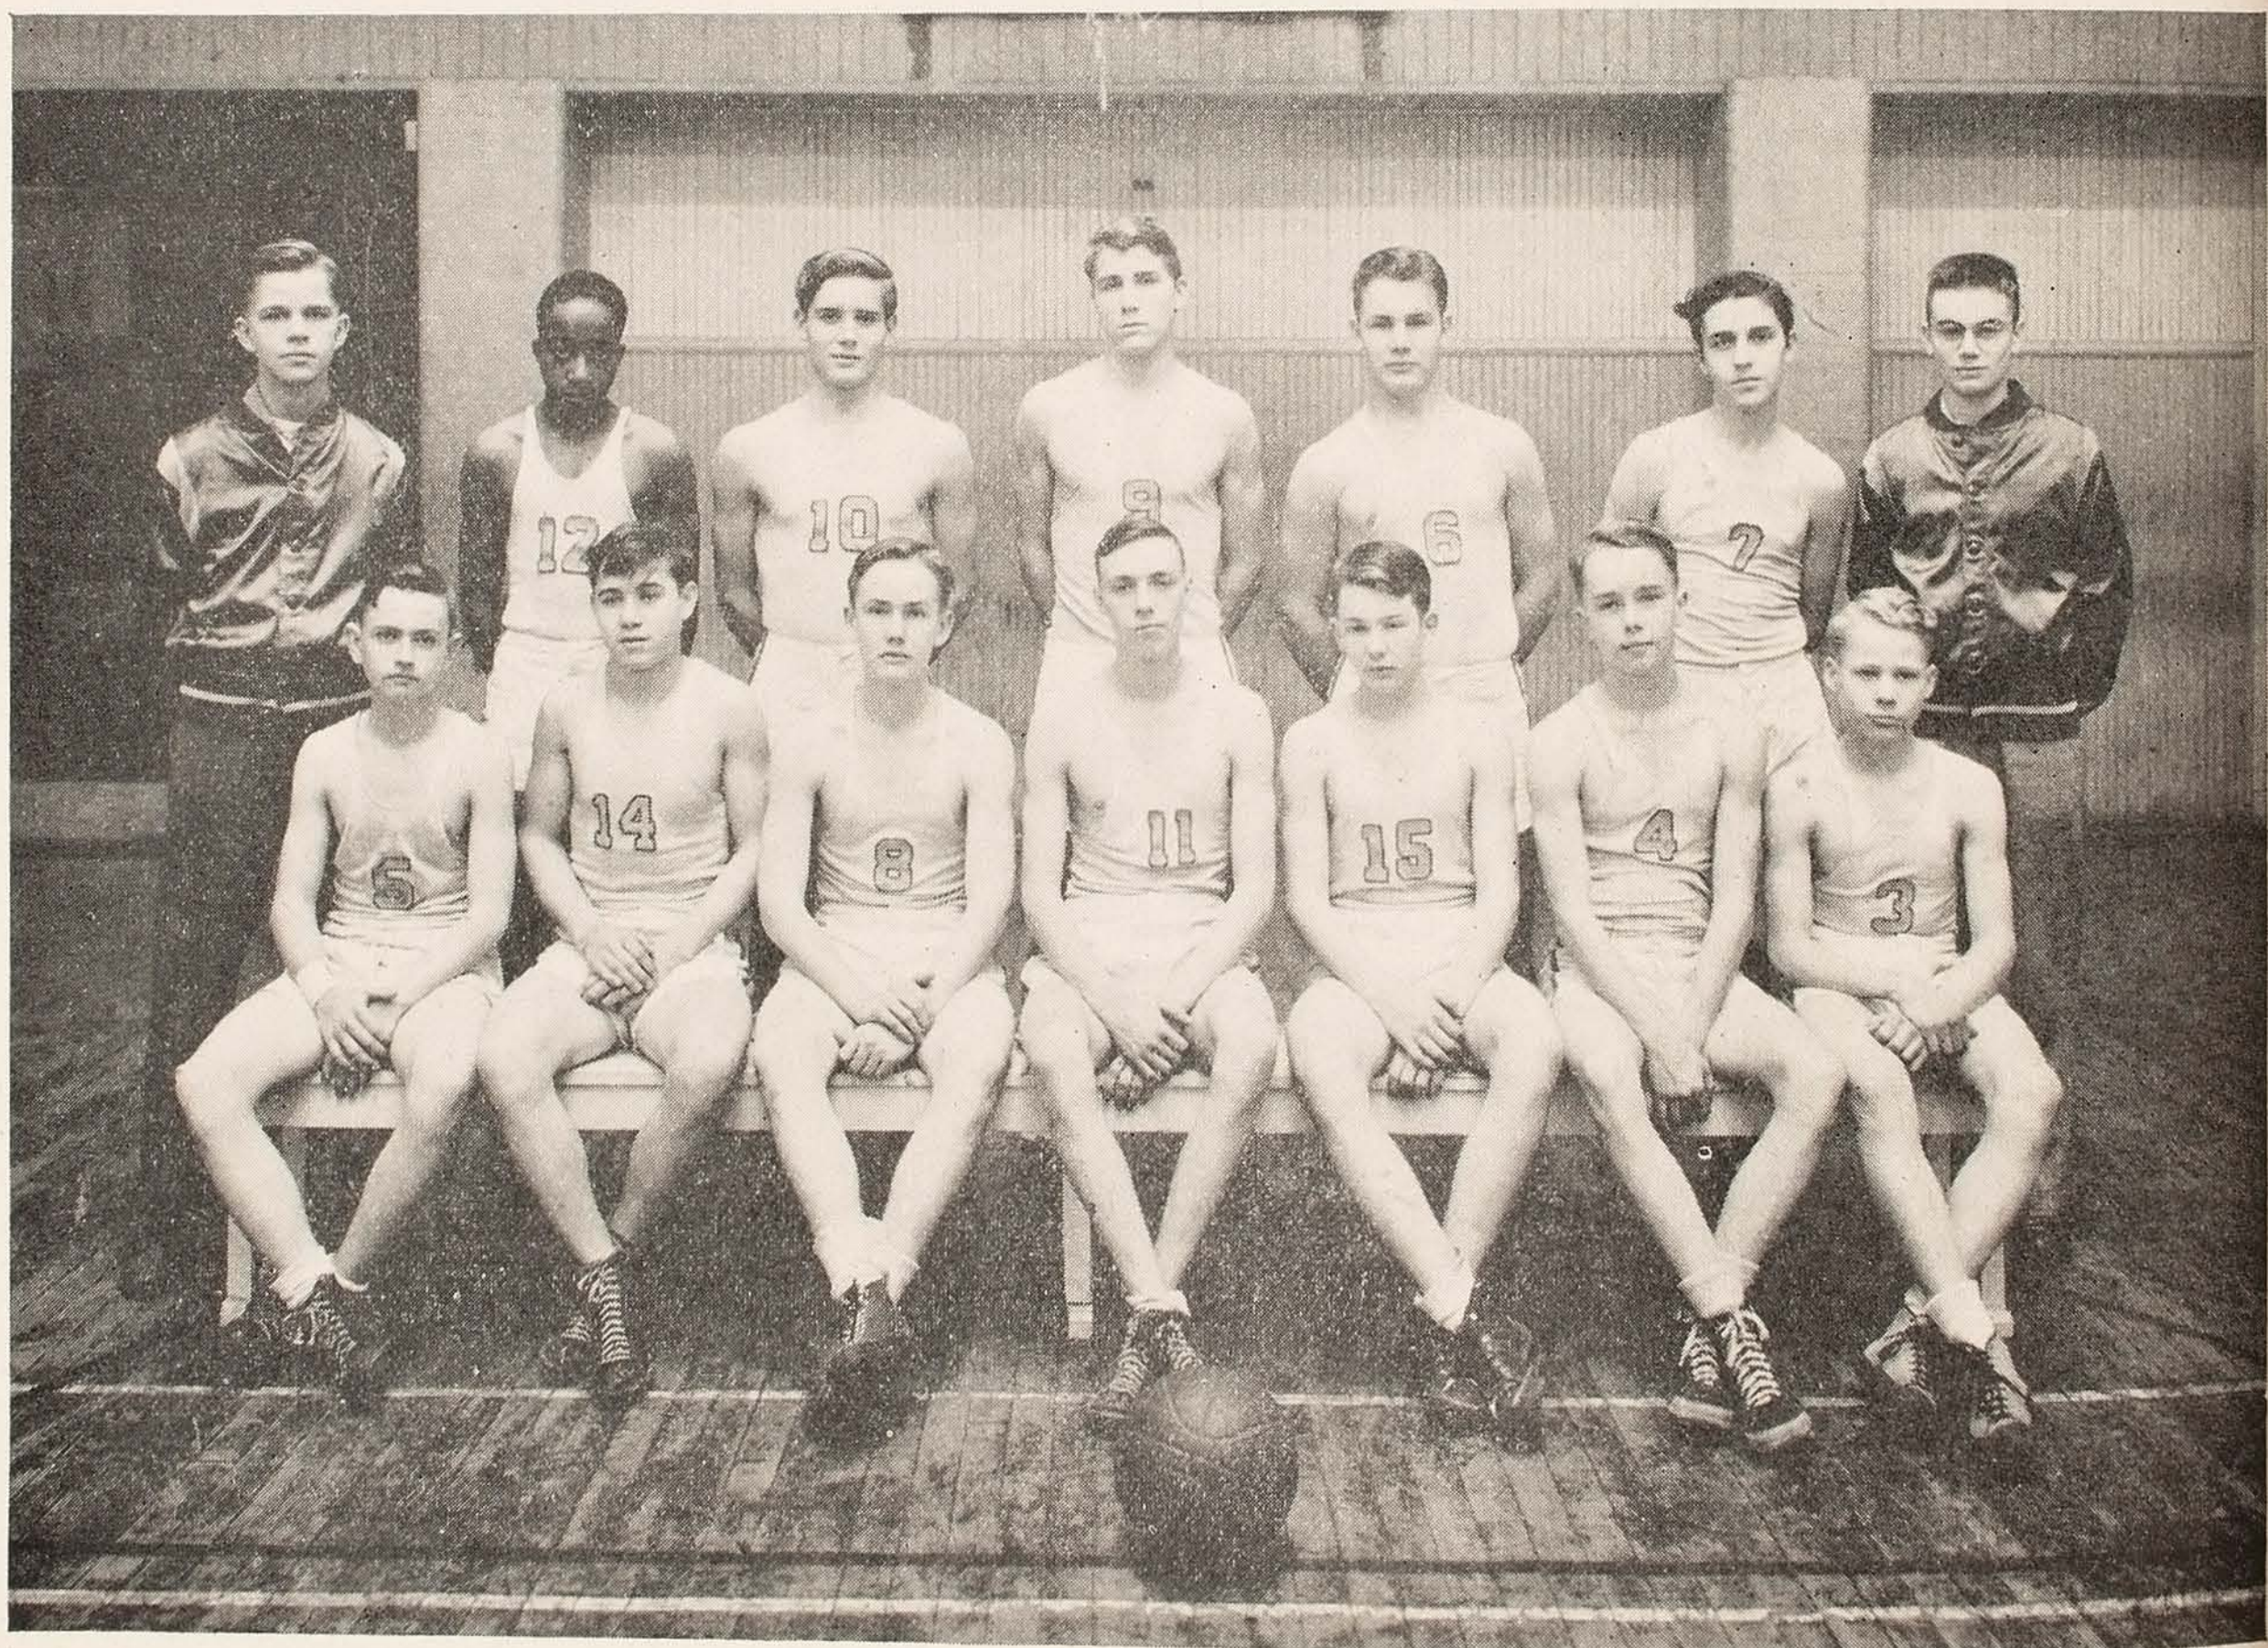

Four of the last five tournament games ended with only a one-point margin, and U. High played in two of these games. The fact that the boys didn't give up but were determined to win pays a high tribute to a polished team and to one of which we are very proud. With the ability of Johnne Wroan and four very capable cagers (Galvin, Barker, Sherrard, and Weidig) this year's cagers did their job very spectacularly.

We want also to pay tribute to the managers, Gus Creager and Jim Laible, who faithfully followed the team and helped keep them in tip-top shape.

Fresh - Soph Basketball

U High's Frosh-Soph Basketball team turned in some thrilling games this year under the able leadership of their coach, I. J. Laws.

The team included the following: Don Sutton, Bill Dorn, Tom Jefferson, Dale Knobloch, Clinton Short, Charles Laskowski, Paul West, Jim Day, Dick Weidig, Jerry Martens, Robert White, Dean Shepard, Jack Jetton, Jack Steege, Bill Mette, Robert Hillman, and Delmar Gottschalk. The managers were Steve Sample and Jim Laible.

Many of these lads will become even more prominent on our varsity next year.

Fresh - Soph Football

U. High's frosh-soph football squad finished the most successful season in the history of the school by winning nine games and losing none.

Directed by I. J. Laws and led by Bill Dorn, Dick Wiedig, and Jerry Martens, U. High's varsity-to-be held their opponents this year to the amazing total of no points.

This year's showing by these youngsters causes the rest of us to feel that next year's varsity will be in line for the Corn Belt Championship.

Baseball

Baseball started in full swing at U High this year with approximately 35 boys reporting regularly every afternoon to our capable coach, I. J. Laws.

U High opened the season with a blaze of glory by brushing aside Carlock to the tune of 8-2.

After several games the team was unfortunate in losing their very capable catcher, John Wroan, to the Navy.

The captain, Jerry Barker, proved his worth more than once in a tight spot.

The line-up was as follows: pitchers—Bob Hougham, Jerry Barker, Paul Miller, Ronald Bates, and Dick Weidig; catchers—John Wroan, Bill Dorn, and Wilbur Hoover; first base—Paul Miller, Bill Benjamin, and Bob Hougham; second base—Clinton Short, Joe Kroll, and Jerry Barkley; third base—Milton Kadlec; short stop—Don Sherrard; outfield—Jerry Barker, Bob Landis, Tom Jefferson, Tom Kinder, Bob White, Don Campbell, Bob Hillman, and Steve Sample.

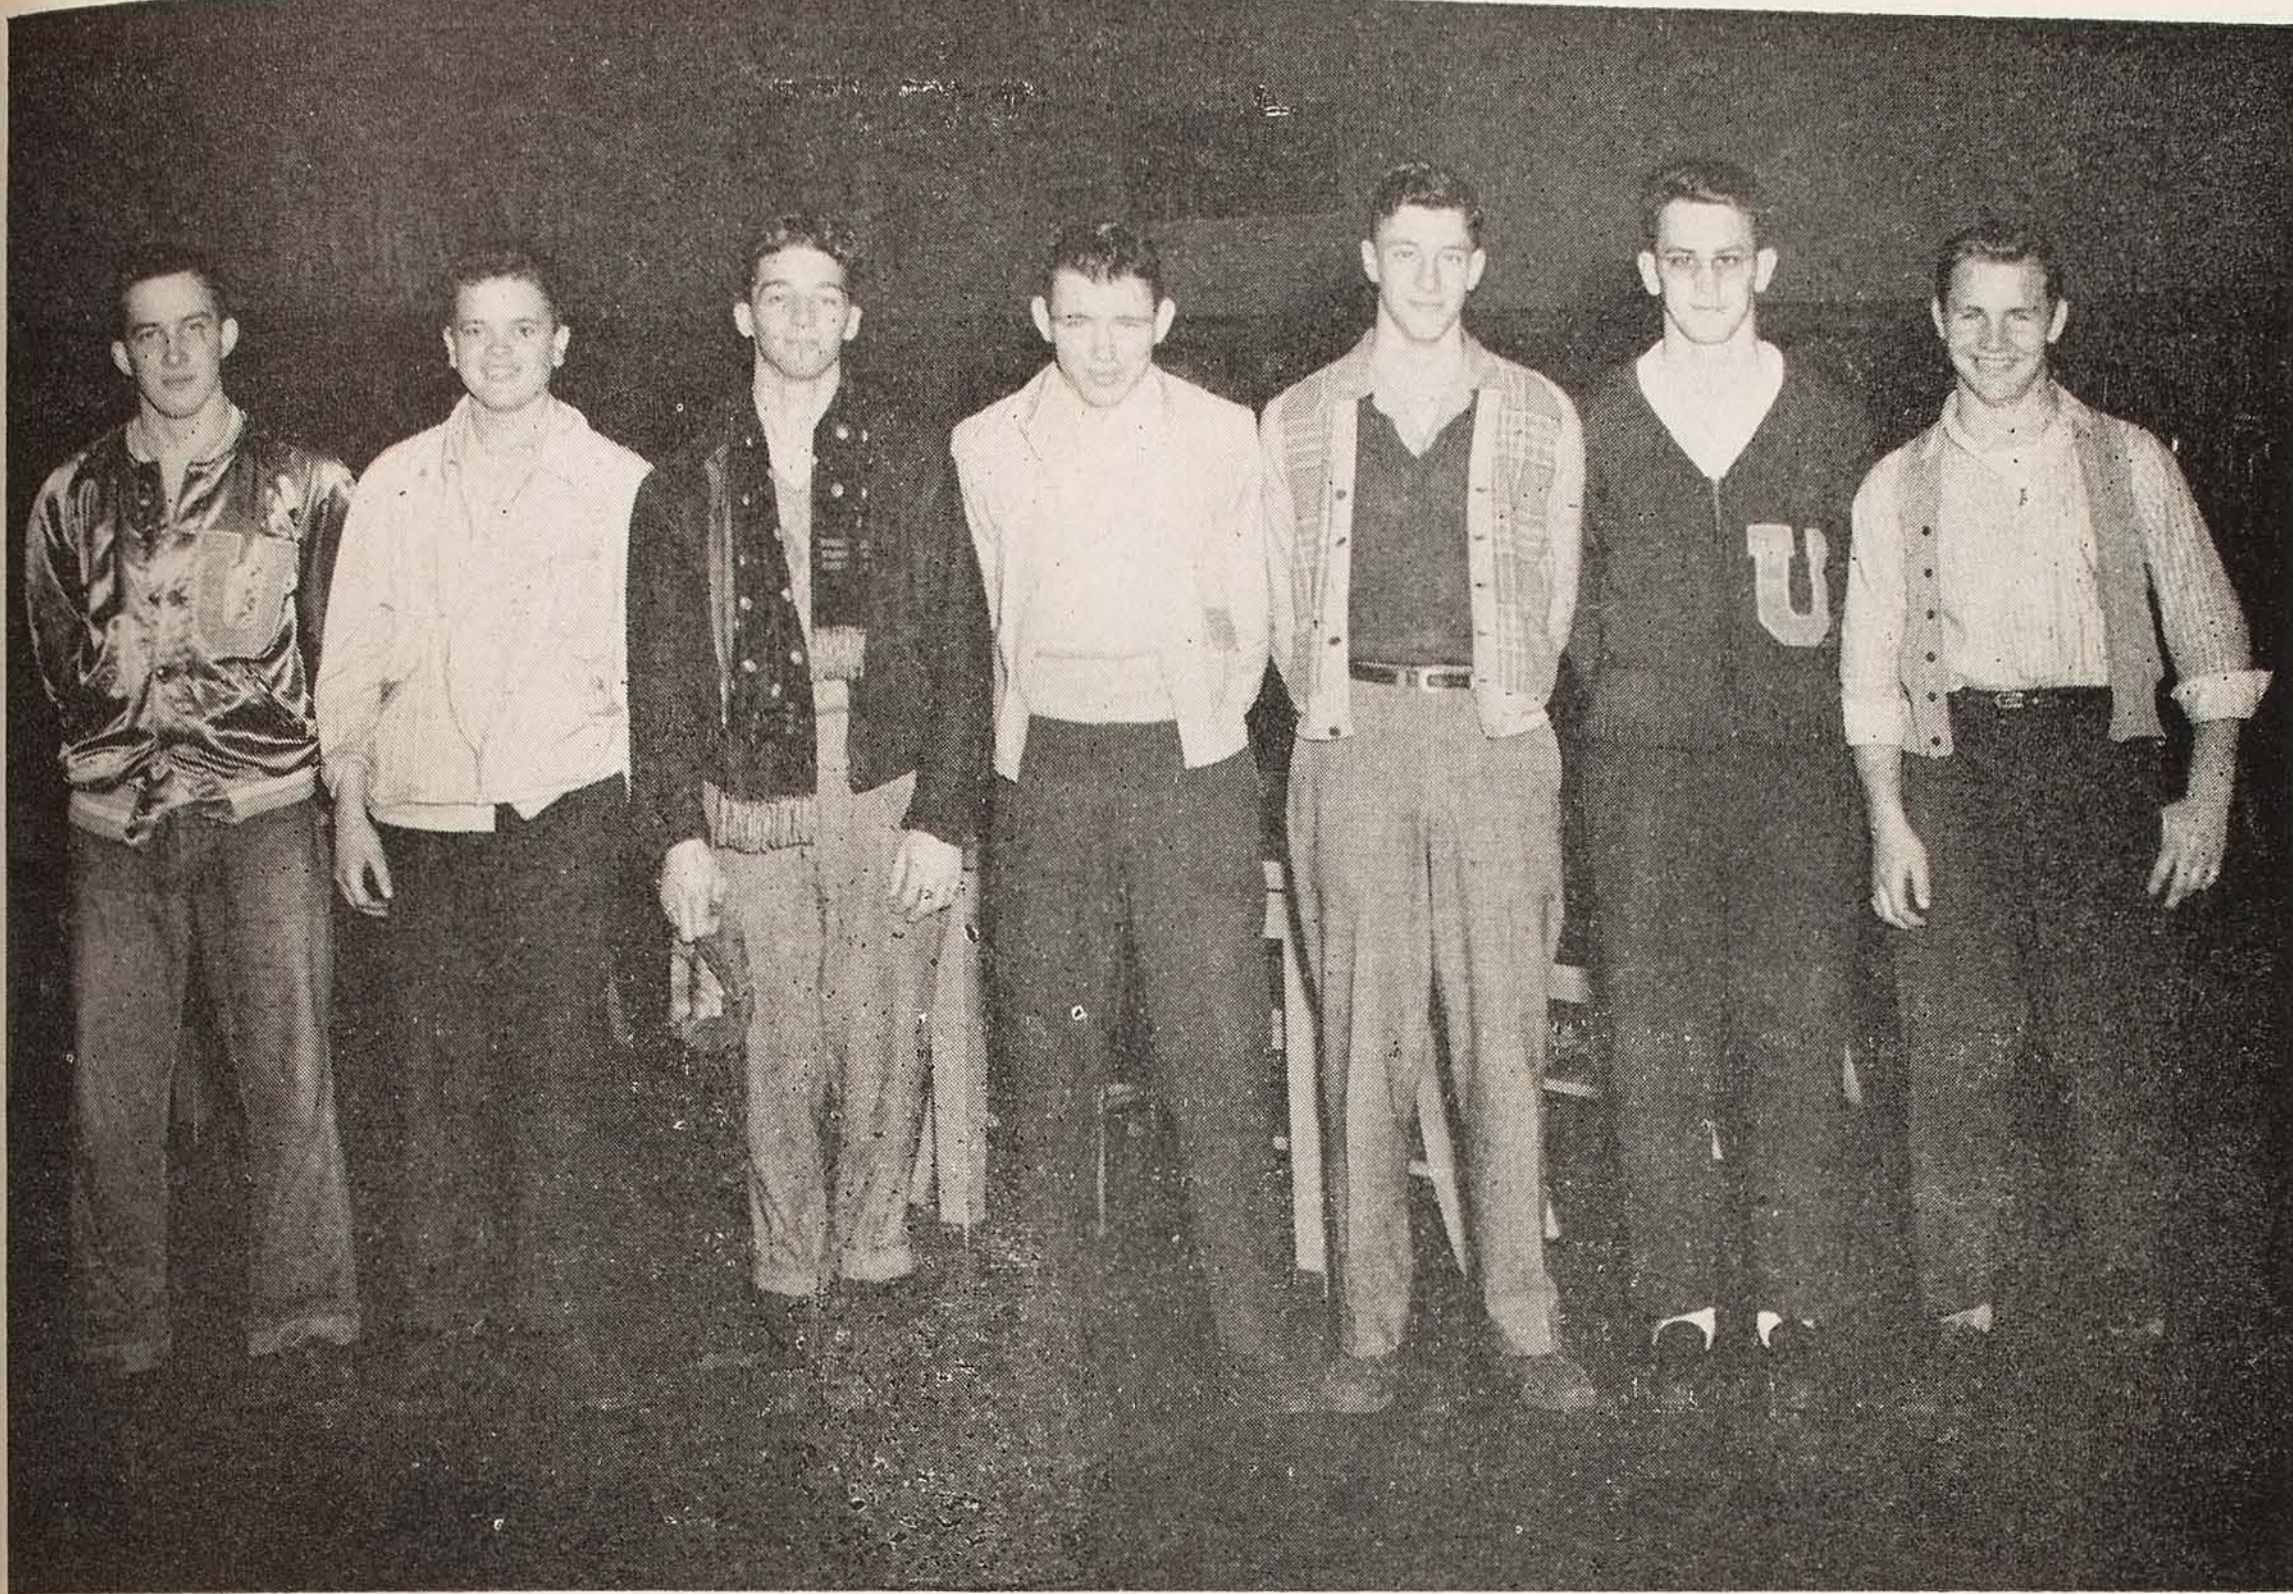

The baseball scores and pictures are not in the yearbook because it had to go to the printer's too soon.

Track

University High School's thinly-clads opened the track season "with a bang" this year by dropping Heyworth in a dual meet 80½ to 37. Later they met the Hornets again and N. C. H. S. in a Triangular at Normal's Oval and were upset by the Ironmen who scored 61 points to U. High's 51 and Heyworth's 39. The Corn Belt meet concluded the season, but since the yearbook went to press before that meet, the results can not be given.

The boys who were out for track during the first of the season were Floyd Bonds, Ted Chrifield, Bill Dorn, Tom Galvin, Carlton Gamer, Milton Kadlec, Bob Landes, Merle Murray, Eldred Popejoy, Jim Streenz, Don Sutton, Irv Tick, Dick Weidig, Warren Woodburn, and Johnny Wroan.

B. Landis, B. Mercier, J. Barker, J. Wroan, J. Martens, D. Miller, B. Dorn.

U. Club

A symbol of sports! Yes, that characteristic green sweater with a big yellow U is a mighty common sight around U. High. When a letter has been earned in some sport, a boy automatically becomes a member of this club.

Under the able leadership of Coach O'Connor, this popular club may be called upon to welcome visiting teams, to serve as ushers and ticket-takers, and to take charge at tournaments.

We have a large record book in which every boy gaining a letter in athletics is given the privilege of signing his name. In this way a permanent record is kept of all the athletic events along with the names of all lettermen.

The annual sports banquet each spring is also sponsored by the U. Club.

In the coming years may U. High continue to have as fine a bunch of boys wearing those U's which represent hard play and good sportsmanship as it has had in the past.

G. A. A.

G.A.A., the club which is always "on the go", was back at it again this year with more pep and vigor.

The officers of this imposing group were as follows: Pauline West, president; Barbara Williams, vice-president; Ruth Mentzer, secretary.

Miss Thielen sponsored the club until late fall when she left campus, and much credit should be given to her for her wonderful advice and ideas. Miss Marian Smalley substituted for Miss Thielen for several months and also contributed much to the club. After Miss Smalley left, the club sponsorship was given to Miss Ross who began her duties at U. High in February.

To be a member of this club of might and power, there were certain requirements. In other words, an individual had to participate eight times in one sport before she could become a member.

Then, of course, nothing could stop these girls! All of them wanted a numeral. To get a numeral, an individual had to earn three sets of points. A point was obtained by going out for one sport eight times.

G.A.A. also put on a radio program called "Who's Next" which was very good.

Some of the sports of G.A.A. were hockey, volley ball, basketball, baseball, and individual sports. (In case you passed the gym and heard some blood curdling screams, it was only someone making a basket in one of those heated tournaments.)

The girls also had one party a month, all of which were "super-duper"!

G.A.A. got a portable badminton set this year! Was it swell? Just ask anyone.

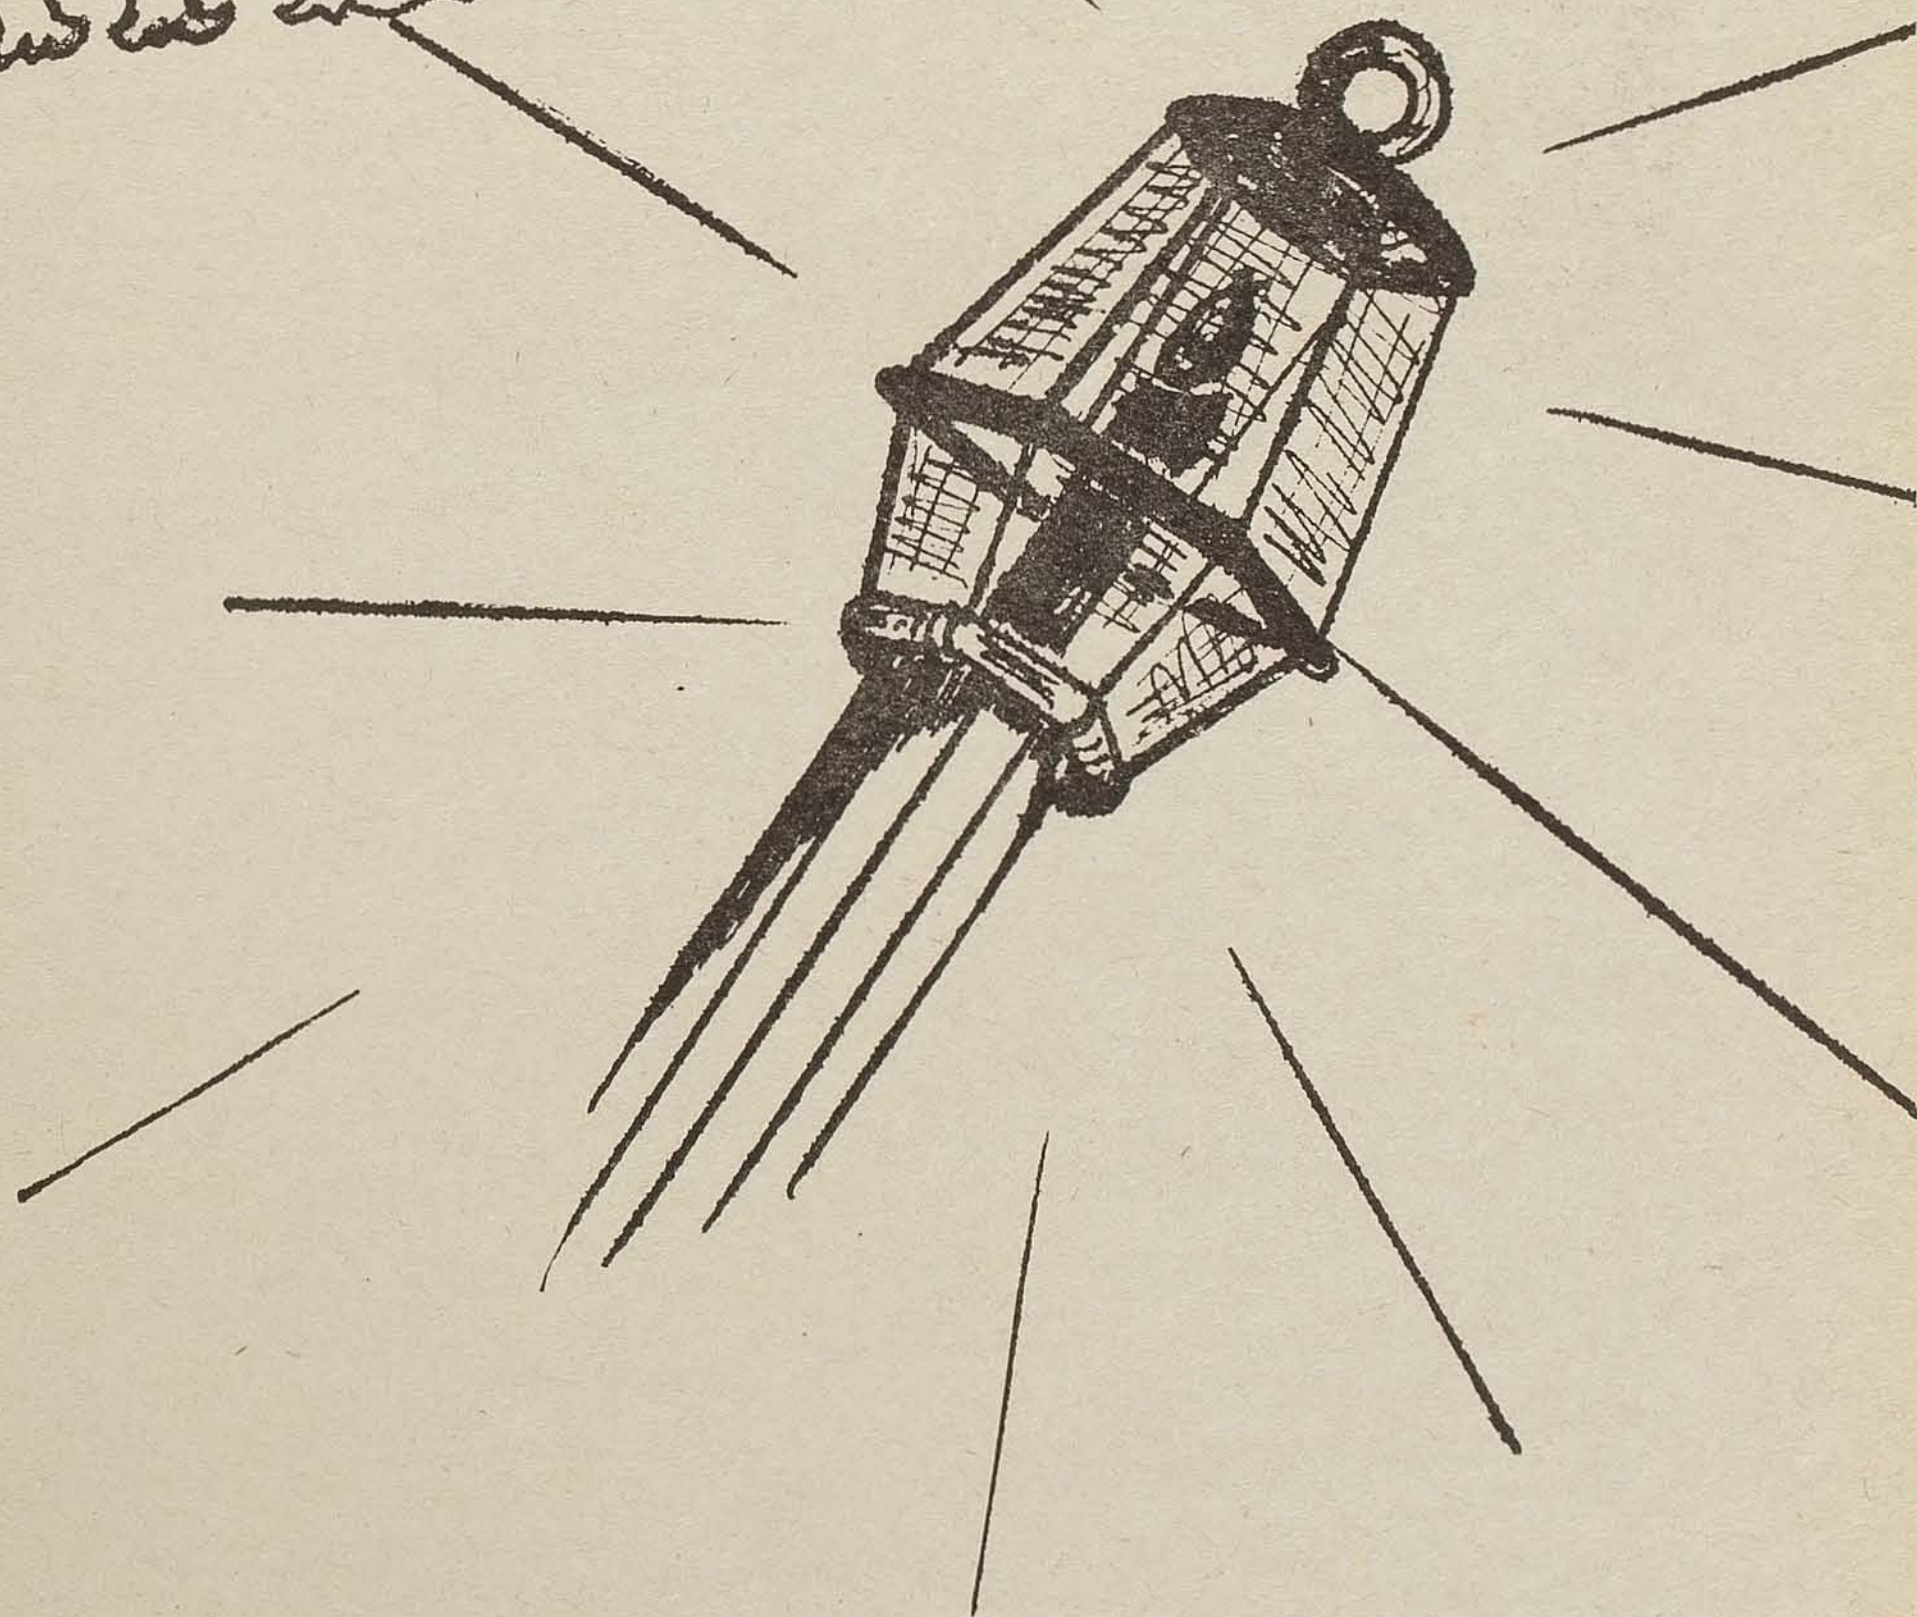

Maybe this old saying is true: "All good things improve with age." As G.A.A. becomes older in our school, it becomes a more active organization.

Well, until next year, girls of G.A.A., more muscles and power to you!

U. High Humor

Dear Kids,

Yipee!! We're out at last! I mean we're off at last to another swell summer of swimming, hiking, biking, picnics, camping, and — maybe summer school. Oh, cheer up. Why don't you come to summer school? U. High isn't such a bad place. In fact, —

U. High Would Be Lost Without —

Helen Bane's friendly smile
Don Colville's lunches (including 3 sundaes, 2 pumpkin pies, and 2 strawberry milkshakes)
Joan Kinneman's suggestions in Student Council
Grover Baker's ambitions(?)
Fred Beck's saxophone
Chuck Beeler's handsomeness
Marcella Pearson's latest gab
Dorothy Wilson's cute smiling eyes

This brings us up to a few jokes we've heard from time to time:

Miss Williams: Albert, define "permission."

Albert Ward: "Permission" is what you get from a teacher before you can leave study hall.

Mrs. Wunderlich: Didn't your mother write you an excuse for yesterday,
Gene?

Gene Kauth: Yes, but I forgot to bring it.

Mrs. W.: Well, where were you yesterday, Gene?

Gene: I don't know. I forgot to read the note.

Don Elam: This typewriter isn't any good.

Miss Webb: Why do you say that, Don?

Don: Well, I want to write "book" and this machine only has one "o".

Miss Stephens (after a long discussion on peace, good will, disarmament, etc.): Well, Arthur, give your reasons why you hate war.

Arthur Biggs: 'Cause wars make history, and I don't like history.

You know, kids, the things that make U. High different from other schools are kids like you. In fact,

Where Would U. High Be Without? —

Dick Weidig's baskets at those last few games
Wilbur Hoover's football tactics
Don Wall's cheering at games
Mary Lou Stover's leadership
Bill Dorn's smile
Betty Cross's grades
Sally Stretch's personality
Joan Littell's "Spooks"

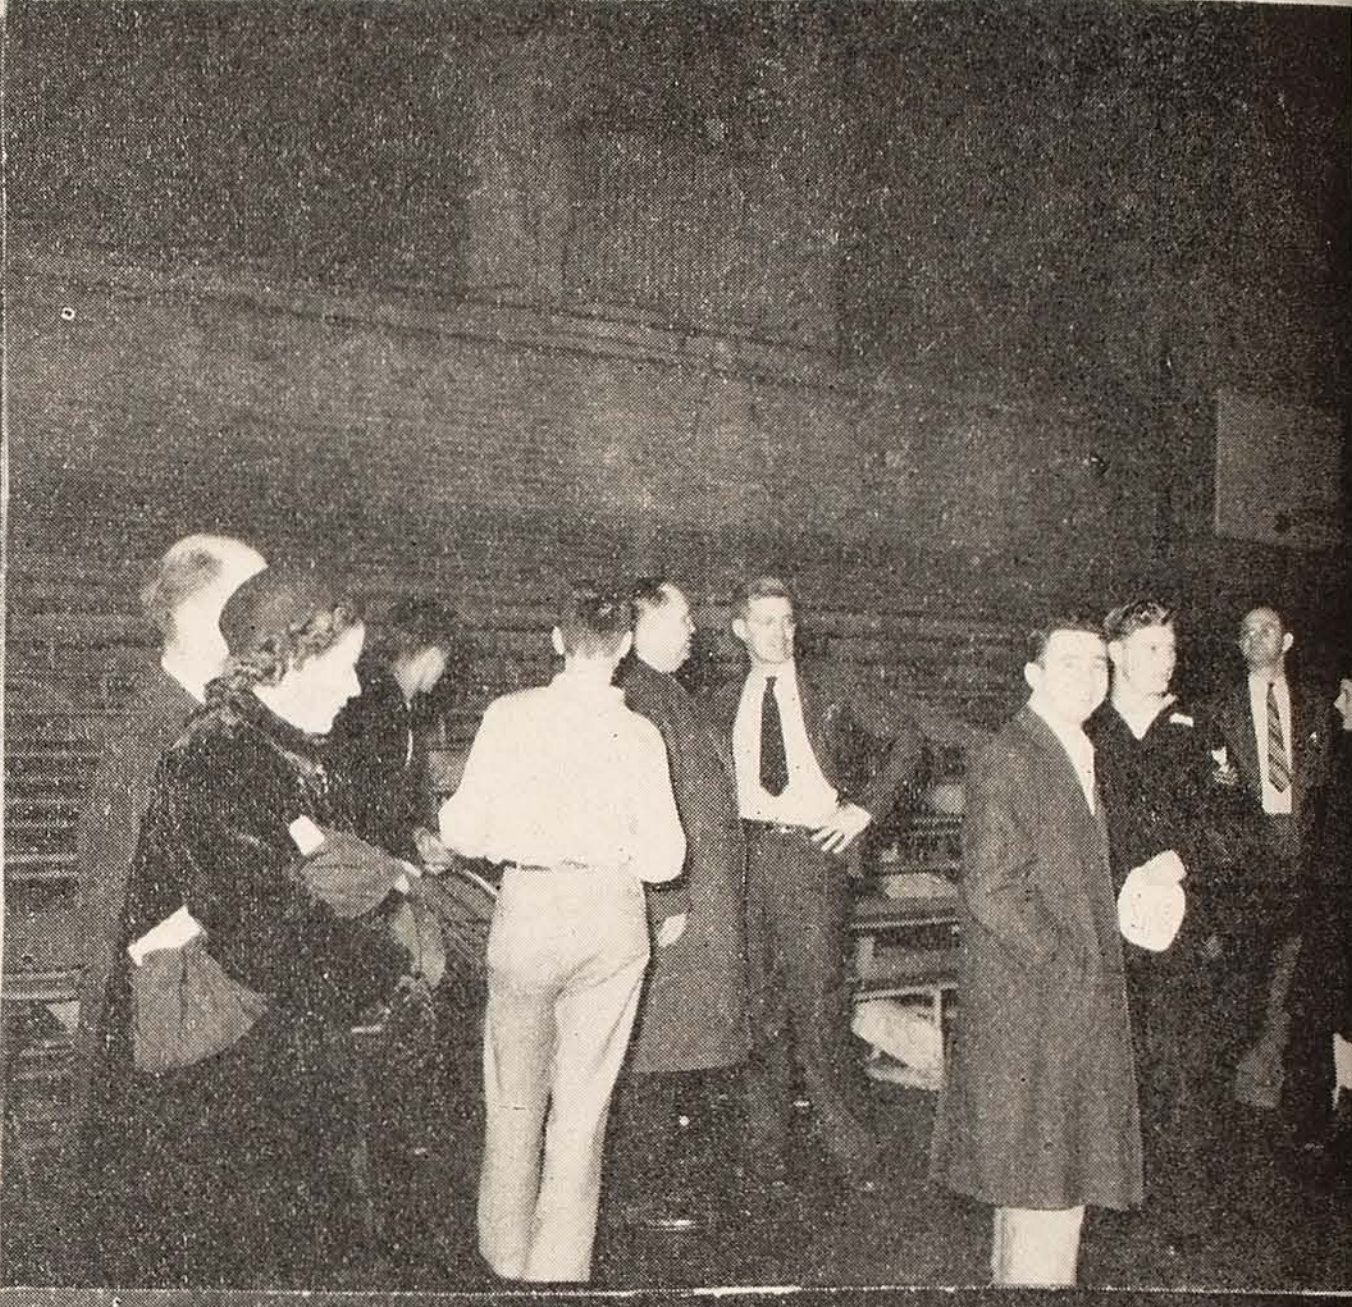

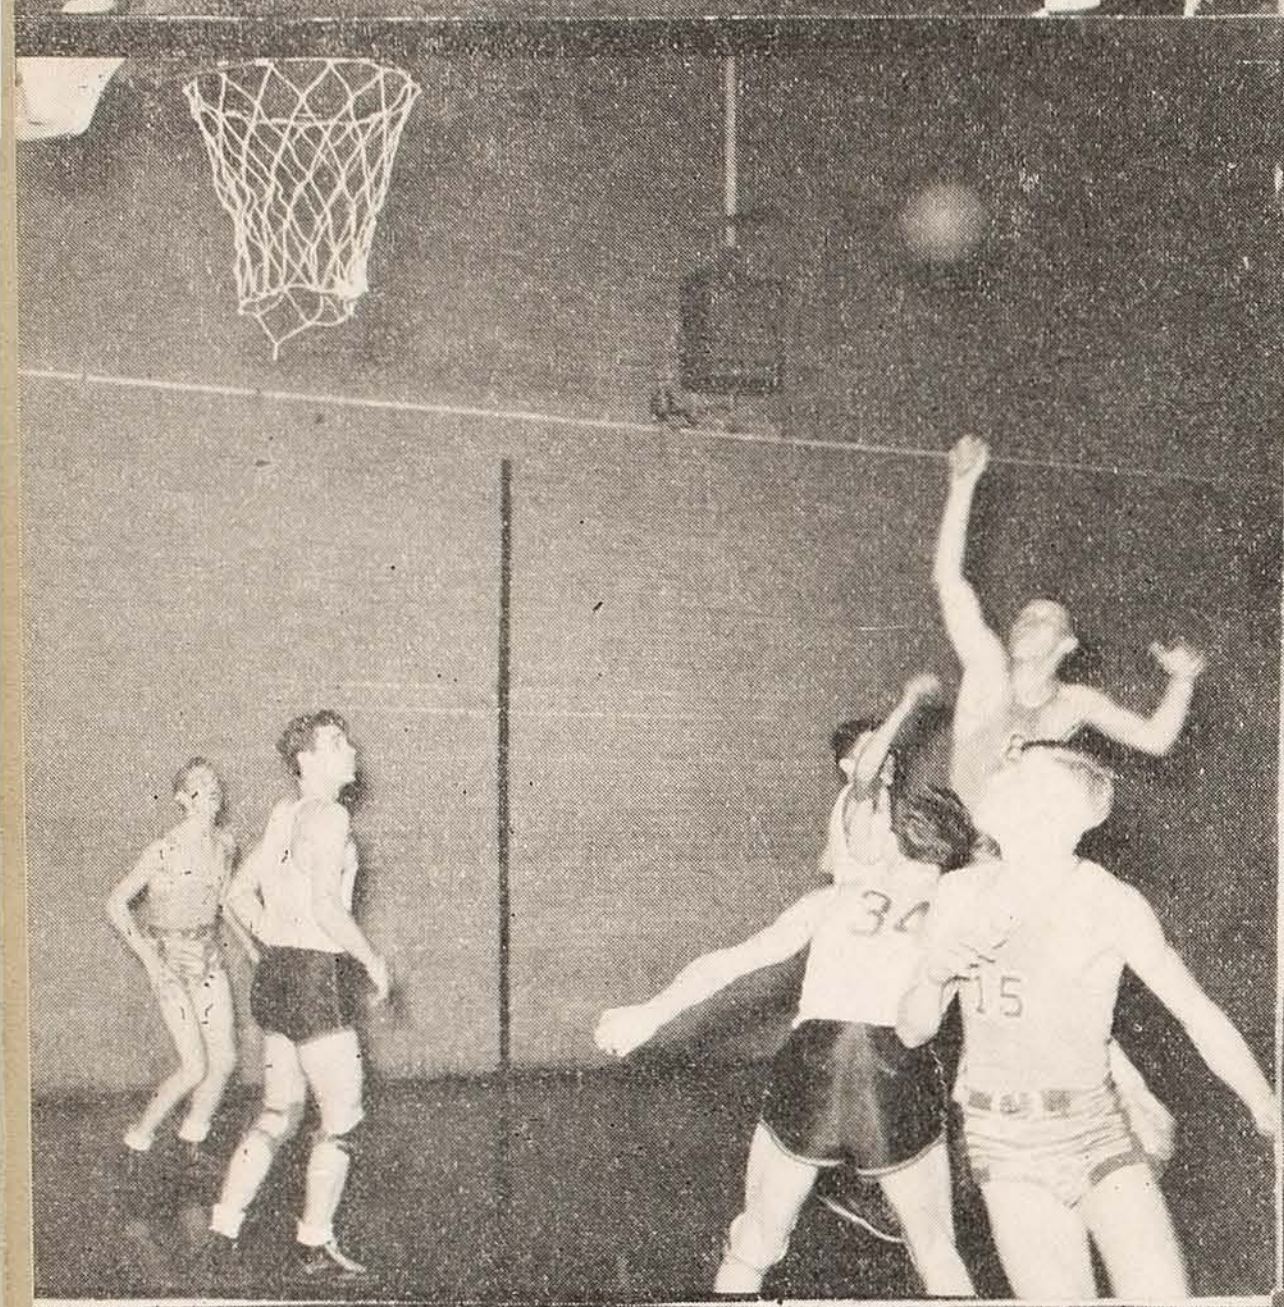

Barbara Dobb's furs
 Corinne Carson???
 Jim Jones's briefcase
 Patty Reed's cuteness
 Bill Rolley's curly hair
 Martha Schaab's cheerleading
 Erma Steele's brains
 Dick Walker's records
 Jerry Berkowitz's biology animals
 Barbara Corn's friendliness
 Dave Doud's musical horns
 Rolene Ellerbrock's knitting
 Ned Jefferson's executive ability
 Christine Lowenstein's violin
 Ruth Mentzer's baskets in gym
 David Brazelton's red hair
 Clarise Parker's school spirit
 Carol Wiley's sweetness

Of course, school's lots of fun — but I wonder why we always look forward so to those week-ends. Maybe it's because of the Hit Parade — and that reminds me of songs that we might link with certain U. High guys and gals:

"Why Don't You Do Right?" — Jerry Martens (from Coach O'Connor)
 "Zoot Suit" — Dick Anderson
 "Three Little Sisters" — The Reinings
 "Sweet Eloise" — Eloise Oesch
 "Here Comes the Navy" — Marilyn Nelson
 "I Dream of You" — Barb Thielen
 "Snooty Little Cutie" — Evie Brynhildsen
 "My Time Is Your Time" — Dr. Houston
 "Insect Song" — Miss MacAvoy
 "I Wish That I Could Hide Inside This Letter" — Carol Karr
 "Beat Me Daddy, Eight to the Bar" — Floyd Bonds
 "Indian Love Call" — Janet Brown
 "How Many Hearts Have You Broken?" — Bob Hougham
 "Don't Fence Me In" — Bill Mette
 "Comin' In On a Wing and a Prayer" — Dave Culbertson (and the Smith-Alsop truck)
 "There's Something About a Sailor" — Ann Lewis
 "It Started All Over Again" — Jerry Barker
 "100 Men and a Girl" — Ruth Ann Allott
 "Swing and Sway" — Jay Eichorn
 "Always" and "Together" — Rog Freedlund and Marilyn Mette
 "A Good Man Is Hard To Find" — Yvonne Maxey
 "Sweet and Lovely" — Jeanne Smith
 "Strawberry Blonde" — Marilyn Warmbir

"Wilburforce, Get Off That Horse" — Bud Murray
 "Don't Believe Everything You Hear" — Margie Evans
 "You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby" — Barb Kauth
 "All or Nothing At All" — Joan Saylor
 "Don't Take Your Love From Me" — Irv Tick
 "I Want a Girl, Just Like the Girl, That Married Dear Old Dad" — Jim Terrill
 "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" — Katherine Davis
 "Time Waits For No One" — Joan Kupfer (as she walks into study hall late)
 "Slender, Tender, and Tall" — Oleta Lanigan
 "This Is The Army" — Gene Murray
 "It's Love, Love, Love" — Burtie Mercier
 "Cecilia" — Celia Smith

And then we overheard such snatches of conversation as this in the Co-op and Ko-Ko Shop:

Nan Brown: "Community has some good points!"
 JoAnn Marshall: "But my dog's name's Scotty."
 Johnny Malmburg: "But look here, T. E., I believe Einstein made a mistake."
 Marilyn Meents: "I'll take cake a la mode."
 Lester Martin: "But, Alva, this blueprint of yours is all wrong."
 Betty Robinson: "I didn't do it."
 Dick Stoik: "What are you doing Friday night, huh?"

And, oh yes, and, by the way,

Didja Know That —

Alfred Haeffle worked at the State Farm on roller skates?
 Bob Hout came to U. High from B. H. S.?
 Maurice and Maureen Jones are twins?
 Edward Cunningham worked at the Normal Theater and expects to go into partnership with Mr. Kupfer any day now?
 Betty Brown has made a rapid improvement in Latin?

And now for some jokes taken exclusively from Dave Brazelton's little black joke book, copyrighted . . . .

Fortune Teller: Ha, ha, ha. I can tell the past, present, and future. Ha, ha, ha.
 Eldon Rupp: Well, who are you, anyway?
 Fortune Teller: A Happy Medium.
 Duane Vanderwater: Dean, why do bees itch?
 Dean Scott: I don't know. Why?
 Duane: You'd itch, too, if you had hives.
 Betty Soucy: You have to hand it to Venus DeMilo when it comes to eating.
 Betty Streenz: Why, Betty?
 Betty Soucy: How else could she get it?

And now, kids, that you come to think of it,

Did You Ever See —

Mr. Peithman without his briefcase?
U. S. History without tests?
Rupp without Beeler?
Johnny Wroan miss a free throw?
Fred Gardner without his hair combed?
U. High without Corn?
Steve Sample without his trombone on a crowded Main Street bus on Monday mornings?
Ted Carihfield without spunk?
Bill Ewing without a wink?
Pollyanna without Wanda?
Charlotte Geske without a smile?
Dorothy Stone without her knitting?
Gerald Wack without Lee?
Joan Fleming without geometry answers?
John Holmes without an "A"?
Angeline Kenyon without her music?
Clifford Wall without wondering if it's really Don?
Barbara Williams without her apron?
Harry Ziegler without his green and gold pants?
Elaine Carlock without Harry's jacket?
Dibby Dalton without her history book?

After further census to find more material for this column, the editors discovered the following people listening to the following songs in the Co-op:

LaVonne Cooper — "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean"
Tim Downing — "One Meat Ball"
Clint Short — "I Came Here to Talk for (Bates)"
The Band — "Holiday for Strings"
Mr. Peithman — "Take It Slow"
Dorothy Lamm — "You Made Me Love You"
George Harris — "I Wish I Had a Dime"
Alice Stanbery — "Song of General Platoff's Don Cossacks"
Agnes Watson — "He's My Guy"
Kenny Keighin — "Going My Way"
Patty Hollowell — "Bobby Sox Tune"
Roy Underwood — "I Dream of Jeanie"
Dave Lewis — "Is You Is Or Is You Ain't My Baby?"
Audrey Brust — "And the Angels Sing"
Gretchen Gottschalk — "Give Me Some Men"
Peggy Minch — "Who?"
Jim Day — "Somebody Loves Me"
Joan Mercier — "Here I Go Again"
Eileen Miller — "Candy"
Betty Mallory — "She Wears a Pair of Silver Wings"

Sometimes classes get pretty interesting, particularly when teachers ask questions and get answers like these:

Miss McDavitt: Can anyone tell me what causes trees to become petrified?

Bill Benjamin: The wind makes 'em rock.

Mr. Poland: What's the formula for water?

Don Gresham:  $H^2O$ .

Mr. Poland: Then what's the formula for sea water?

Don:  $C H^2O$ .

Mr. Ellwood: Tom, can you tell me where the Red Sea is?

Tom Kinder: Yes, it's on the third line of my report card.

In every high school there's a freshman class. In fact, we were all freshmen at some time (and tales of our own greenness still embarrass us). However, we sure owe some tribute to those freshies — the largest class in U. High. What about —

Frankie Abbott, who already sighs "She's short, sweet, and beautiful"

Betty Baker, who is already an entry in many boys' date books

Naomi Ruth Beeler, who already has a "Sample" of a man picked out for her

Barbara Browne, who's got beauty and brains

Frances Coan, who really stars at standing on her head in gym classes

Bill Bunting, who worked until 8 o'clock on decorations for an all-school party

Don Campbell, who's going to be a second Pee-Wee Reese

Clark Cole, who's the boy wonder of Mr. O'Connor's gym classes

Franklin Correll, who thinks doors are too low

Jack Donahue, who was the big political boss of Student Council

Nancy Fearheiley, who is the talented artist of the class

Freddie Lee Gardner, who has never been seen without his hair combed

Ann Gooding, who of all the Freshies is the most interested in athletics

Delmar Gottschalk, who seems to have a real basketball future

Nellie Gray, who must have had a song named after her

Charlene Hamilton, who really attracts those men

Norma Jean Hannell, who raises sheep

Bill Harsha, who is never seen far from Bill Anderson's

Ruth Ann Herrington, who has someone's initials on her socks

Bob Hillman, who is famous for his "What's up, Doc?"

Tom Jefferson, who will evidently be even more famous than Thomas

Jack Jetton, who is known for his athletic knowledge

Milt Kadlac, who shows the upper classmen how to dance

Jim Laible, whom the teams couldn't do without

Charles Lackowski, who even makes the college players sit up and take notice

Patty Martin, who has the sweetest smile in the class

Kathleen MacDonald, who really bangs out the Boogie Woogie

Patty Taylor, who will probably take over Mrs. Wunderlich's job

James Zaleski, who plans to be a chemist with DuPont when he graduates

And just to contrast the U. High of the 90's with the U. High of the 40's, note the following facts:

The Nineties

1. The faculty consisted of a principal and two assistants.
2. Tuition was high.
3. Curricular Offering
  - a. Foreign languages
(Every student was required to take four years of a foreign language)
  - b. All other subjects
(history, civics, literature, English, drawing, mathematics and science) were part of the curriculum of I. S. N. U. High school students were privileged to enroll in these classes.
4. Extra-curricular Offerings
  - a. Literary societies of I. S. N. U.
  - b. Athletics (basketball and baseball)
  - c. I. S. N. U. lecture course
5. Housing Conditions
  - a. One room (room 12, N.W. corner, main floor of Old Main) was provided to accommodate the pupils of University High School. They used the Normal University gymnasium for athletics.

The Forties

1. The faculty consists of a principal and approximately thirty-eight instructors.
2. No tuition is paid — only an activity fee of $5 a semester.
3. Curricular Offering
  - a. Required Subjects
    1. Three years of English.
    2. U. S. History.
    3. General Science.
    4. 1/2 unit of Speech.
    5. 1/2 unit of vocational civics.
    6. One unit of P. E.
  - b. Electives chosen from the fields of:
    1. Agriculture
    2. Art
    3. Biological Science
    4. Physical Science
    5. Business Education
    6. Foreign language
    7. Journalism
    8. Home Economics
    9. Industrial Arts
    10. Mathematics
    11. Music
    12. Social Science
4. Extra-curricular Offerings
  - a. Note the many activities pictured and discussed in this book.
5. Housing Conditions
  - a. We now have approximately twenty-five class rooms plus a large and well-equipped library. We use the Cook Hall gym and McCormick gym for athletic contests.

6. Largest graduating class of the 90's was twenty-seven in the year 1895.
7. There were few student teachers in the high school. There were none in the foreign language classes, but there were some in the university courses.
8. Entertainment
  - a. The entertainment was chiefly that provided by the university literary societies (debates, picnics, banquets, programs, parties)
  - b. School dances were not allowed.
  - c. There was neither football nor track.
  - d. University lecture courses
6. The number of graduates now range from fifty to seventy-five.
7. There are now many student teachers besides the regular classroom instructors.
8. Entertainment
  - a. School parties and dances
  - b. Athletic contests
  - c. Class plays
  - d. Concerts
  - e. Banquets
  - f. Club or organization parties
  - g. Noon-hour dances and other activities
  - h. University lecture courses

Well, this just about rounds up our memories for U. High, 1944-45. Of course, we're going to miss

Tom Galvin's height
 Joyce Mauney's smallness
 Mary Ellen Dunn's brains
 Mickey Geiger's history reports
 Barb Kinder's all-round niceness and Pat Lawrence's friendliness
 See you next September (we hope) !!!!

So Long —
